

EASTERN SHORE METROPOLITAN PLANNING ORGANIZATION (MPO)

Contact: County Engineer, Administrator
c/o Metropolitan Planning Organization Coordinator

General Board Information:

The Eastern Shore Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) Board was created August 2012 by the Federal Highway Administration in collaboration with the Governor of Alabama and the Alabama Department of Transportation and became fully operational in October 2012, following the results of the 2010 Census. The creation of the MPO Board and its activities are requirements of United States Code USC 23 section 134. MPOs were first required by the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1962.

The two (2) Baldwin County Commissioners appointed to this Board represent County Commission Districts #2 and #3.
The County Engineer serves as Administrator of the MPO.

The MPO consists of the following municipalities: Daphne, Fairhope, Loxley and Spanish Fort as well as Baldwin County.
