11.2 Indemnification of Client. Official Payments will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Client, and its Commissioners, officers, employees, directors, agents and shareholders, in their individual capacities or otherwise, from and against any and all Losses asserted by a third party that result from, relate to, arise out of, or are incurred in connection with: (i) Official Payments' gross negligence or willful misconduct resulting in personal injury or property damage; (ii) Official Payments' failure to comply with laws applicable to Official Payments as a provider of a Service; or (iii) a claim that a Service infringes a registered U.S. trademark or copyright. However, Official Payments will not be liable for (and Client will indemnify Official Payments against) any infringement claim that results, in whole or in part, from: (a) Client's use of a Service in a manner or for a purpose not specifically described in the applicable Service Schedule, or (b) Client's products or services; or (c) Client's failure to implement corrections or changes provided by Official Payments. OFFICIAL PAYMENTS' TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES FOR ANY ACTION RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE SERVICES PROVIDED WILL IN NO EVENT EXCEED THE AMOUNT OF THE FEES PAID TO OFFICIAL PAYMENTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PARTICULAR TRANSACTION FOR THE SPECIFIC SERVICE GIVING RISE TO DAMAGES HEREUNDER. The foregoing limitation of liability and exclusion of certain damages will apply regardless of the success, sufficiency or effectiveness of other remedies. Client acknowledges that without its agreement to the limitations contained herein, Official Payments would be compensated differently, and would charge Client increased fees for the Services.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY. Each party that receives confidential information (as "Receiving Party") will treat information received from the other (as "Disclosing Party") (verbally, electronically, visually, or in a written or other tangible form) that (i) is designated as "confidential" at or prior to disclosure, or (ii) should be reasonably understood to be confidential or proprietary ("Confidential Information") as strictly confidential. Non-public financial information that is personally identifiable to a Customer (referenced in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 as "Non-public Personal Information" or "NPI") is designated as Confidential Information.

Each party will: (i) restrict disclosure of the other party's Confidential Information to only its own employees and agents solely on a "need to know" basis in accordance with the Agreement; (ii) advise its employees and agents of their confidentiality obligations; (iii) require agents to protect and restrict the use of the other party's Confidential Information; (iv) use the same degree of care to protect the other party's Confidential Information as it uses to safeguard its own Confidential Information of similar importance but in any event at least commercially reasonable care; (v) establish procedural, physical and electronic safeguards, designed to prevent the compromise or unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information; and (vi) notify the other party of any unauthorized possession or use of the other party's Confidential Information as soon as possible after learning of that unauthorized use or possession. Official Payments will promptly notify Client and, if requested by Client, each of its affected Customers, of any incident that has resulted or is likely to result in the misuse of NPI, and will comply with all laws regarding NPI that are applicable to it and the Services it provides.

Except as expressly provided for in this Agreement, Confidential Information will remain the property of the party from or through whom it was received. Except for NPI, neither party will be obligated to preserve the confidentiality of any information that: (a) Receiving Party can demonstrate was rightfully known by Receiving Party prior to disclosure by Disclosing Party; (b) is a matter of public knowledge without Receiving Party's violation of these terms; (c) Receiving Party can demonstrate was or is independently developed by Receiving Party without use of Disclosing Party's confidential information; (d) is released for disclosure to Receiving Party with written consent of Discloser; or (e) properly came into the possession of Receiving Party from a third party that has the right to disclose it without an obligation of confidentiality. Disclosure of Confidential Information will be permitted if it is: (1) required by law; (2) in connection with the tax treatment or tax structure of the Agreement; or (3) in response to a valid order of a U.S. court or other governmental body, provided the owner receives written notice and is afforded a reasonable opportunity to obtain a protective order and further provided that such disclosure is limited to the minimum extent required by law as determined by an attorney. Upon termination of a Service Schedule, each party will destroy the other party's Confidential Information relating to that Service Schedule in a manner designed to preserve its confidentiality, or, at the other party's written request and expense, return it to the disclosing party, except as otherwise required by law. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that Client is a governmental entity and shall be entitled to disclose any information required by any applicable laws, rules or regulations. Client shall provide Official Payments notice of such disclosure if such disclosure is not contrary to such applicable law, rule or regulation; .

14. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

14.1 Notices. Except as expressly provided herein, all notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder will be given in writing and will be delivered personally, by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile or by e-mail to the applicable address shown on the Signature Page. Such notice, regardless of the manner delivered, will be deemed to have been delivered the next business day after delivery to the applicable address set forth on the Signature Page. Additionally, a second copy of any notice to Official Payments shall be addressed to the General Counsel at the same address. Any party may change its address for notice hereunder by providing notice to all other parties as provided herein. Each party agrees that any notice delivered by email is hereby deemed to be notice delivered "in writing" and, for notices containing requests for new services, agreements to receive new services, and other offers or acceptances regarding modifications to this Agreement, such email constitutes such party's "electronic signature" to such writing (provided that such email is sent by an authorized representative of such party).

14.2 Modifications. This Agreement may not be amended except by a writing executed by authorized representatives of both parties, or by a Change Order issued by Official Payments as set forth in this Section 14.2. From time to time Official Payments may issue a written modification to this Agreement ("Change Order"), which Change Order may be (i) in response to a request for new Services by Client; or (ii) may contain an offer by Official Payments of new Services by Official Payments, a price change, or other modification to this Agreement. Such Change Orders will be delivered and responded to in the manner set forth in Section 14.1. Each such Change Order issued pursuant to subsection (i) of this Section 14.2 will be effective immediately upon issuance or such other mutually agreeable time as requested in writing by Client, as described in Section 14.1. Each such Change Order issued pursuant to subsection (ii) of this Section 14.2 will be effective thirty (30) days after delivery of the applicable Change Order, unless Client notifies Official Payments within such 30-day period that it does not agree to such Change Order. If Client disagrees, the parties will meet and confer regarding the Change Order. If, after such conference, Official Payments does not withdraw or modify the Change Order, Client may terminate this Agreement on thirty (30) days written notice. Client's continued use of the Services after such thirty-day period will constitute Client's agreement to the modifications in such Change Order, whereupon such Change Order will be effective and become part of this Agreement.

14.3 Entire Agreement; Severability; Waiver. The failure of either party to enforce any terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of such or any other terms or conditions herein contained. If any provision herein is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions will continue in full force without being impaired or invalidated in any way. The parties agree to replace any invalid provision with a provision that most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.
