RE: E. L. Gandy vs.
J. E. Salter

Dear Mrs. Duck:

The referenced case has been settled and at this time I enclose to you the original and one copy of the usual release of garnishment, a copy of which I ask that you sign and forward to Alabama Dry Dock and Ship Building in Mobile, in order to release the wages of Mr. Salter.

I further request that at such time as you have been paid court costs which you claim, that you make the appropriate notation on the judgment record of this case filed in the office of the Judge of Probate of your County.

I am sending a copy of this letter to C. Lenoir Thompson so that he might follow the matter through to a conclusion.

Thanking you in advance for your usual cooperation.

Yours very truly,
