COUNT I

The Plaintiff claims of the Defendant, Benjamin Young Trimm, the sum of Six Thousand Four Hundred Eighty-four and 15/100 Dollars ($6,484.15) as damages for that heretofore, on, to-wit, August 7, 1961, Plaintiff's vehicle, a truck and trailer, was lawfully being driven along U. S. Highway 90, a public highway, approximately six miles West of Loxley in Baldwin County, Alabama, at approximately four o'clock P. M., and then and there the Defendant, Benjamin Young Trimm, while driving an automobile, negligently passed Plaintiff's vehicle and applied brakes, causing Plaintiff's vehicle to strike the vehicle driven by the Defendant, Benjamin Young Trimm, in the rear and causing Plaintiff's vehicle to turn over, resulting in the damages as aforesaid in that the left side of the truck and trailer were damaged and bent; the saddle tanks were damaged; the motor was damaged; repainting was required; the truck and trailer were otherwise bent and damaged; a cross member was bent; the frame was bent; a left spring was damaged; an axle was bent; and the truck and trailer were otherwise injured and rendered less valuable; and that towing charges were incurred; and that the use of the vehicle was lost to the damage of the Plaintiff; all as a proximate result of the negligence of the Defendant, Benjamin Young Trimm, as aforesaid.

COUNT II

The Plaintiff claims of the Defendants, Benjamin Young Trimm, and Riley Trimm, the sum of Six Thousand Four Hundred and 15/100 Dollars ($6,484.15) damages for that heretofore, on, to-wit, August 7, 1961, Plaintiff's vehicle, a truck and trailer, was lawfully being driven along U. S. Highway 90, a public Highway, approximately six miles West of Loxley in Baldwin County, Alabama, at approximately four o'clock P. M., and then and there the Defendant, Benjamin Young Trimm, the agent, servant or employee of the Defendant, Riley Trimm, while acting within the line or scope of his employment as such agent, servant or employee, while driving an automobile, negligently passed Plaintiff's vehicle and turned in close ahead of Plaintiff's vehicle and applied brakes, causing Plaintiff's vehicle to strike the vehicle driven by the Defendant, Benjamin Young Trimm, in the rear, and causing Plaintiff's vehicle to turn over, resulting in the damage as aforesaid in that the left side of the truck and trailer were damaged, bent; the saddle tanks were damaged; the motor was damaged; repainting was required; the truck and trailer were otherwise bent and damaged; a cross member was bent; the frame was bent; a left spring was damaged; an axle was bent; and the truck and trailer were otherwise injured and rendered less valuable; and that towing charges were incurred; and that the use of the vehicle was lost to the damage of the Plaintiff, all as a proximate result and consequence of the negligence as aforesaid.
