Hon. Jesse Kessler, c/o Probate Court, Bay Minette, Alabama.

Dear Jesse:-

ESTATE OF WILLIAM REVAULT.

I have your letter of November 23rd in which you advise that previous to receiving the application I sent you for Charlie Cherry, letters of administration on this estate had been issued to Mr. William Pierce.

If Mr. Pierce is really a nephew of the decedent he would probably have a right to these letters, but if my information is correct he was no relation of the decedent and if so he would have no right to letters within forty days under Section 5744 of the Code, but even if I am incorrect I don't understand that portion of his petition in which he said, "There was no objection to his appointment". However, we cannot at this time know that our information is correct, consequently I am asking you to either file or hold Cherry's petition for filing until the issue can be determined.

I am communicating with my client today and will write you again during this week.

Yours truly,

B. F. MCMILLAN, JR. ATTORNEY AT LAW 803-806 VAN ANTWERP BLDG. MOBILE, ALABAMA

November 21st, 1936.

Mr. Jesse L. Kessler, Probate Court, Bay Minette, Alabama.

Dear Jesse:-

Certain clients, the next of kin of William Revault who died near Barnwell about two weeks ago, have instructed me to file application for administration of his estate.

According to the assessment records Mr. Revault owned no real property and as far as I can tell his home place is everything he had and it is believed that the rent on this place would not exceed $5.00 a month.

Pursuant to my clients request I herewith send you petition for letters of administration, together with a bond for $300.00 certified as good by the judge of our Circuit Court.

My information is that while the decedent had no kin in Baldwin County, yet certain members of his wife's family lived in his home. I do not believe, however, they will make application for letters of administration and the best information I can get is to the affect that there is no will. I am mentioning this feature of the case to you because if application for letters have previously been made by any of them or if application for filing a will has been made the enclosed should not be filed until these applications are disposed.of.

Yours truly,

B. J. Tel Willows
