ORDER SETTING DAY FOR HEARING CAUSE AND ORDERING THE DRAWING AND SUMMONING OF A JURY

In this cause it appears to the court that The Merchants National Bank of Mobile, a National Banking Association, as Executor named in the Last Will and Testament of Bronson E. Lamb, Deceased, as proponent, did on the 12th day of September, 1963, file a verified petition in the Probate Court of Baldwin County, Alabama, to probate a written instrument alleged to be the Last Will and Testament of Bronson E. Lamb, Deceased, and that thereafter and on, to-wit, the 7th day of October, 1963, Nadia Lamb Schell and Bronson E. Lamb, Jr., filed their contest in writing in the Probate Court of Baldwin County, Alabama, of the written instrument filed in the said court on the said date as the Last Will and Testament of Bronson E. Lamb, Deceased, upon grounds fully set forth in the said contest, and demanded that said contest be transferred to this court pursuant to the provisions of the Code of Alabama, Title 61, Section 63, and demanded a jury upon the trial of the said contest, and that the said proponent did thereafter and on, to-wit, the 6th day of November, 1963, also demand a jury for the trial of the said contest;

It is, therefore, ORDERED by the court that an issue be made up between the proponent, The Merchants National Bank of Mobile, a National Banking Association, named in the said will as executor thereof, as plaintiff, and Nadia Lamb Schell and Bronson E. Lamb, Jr., as defendants, and that the 30th day of March, 1964, at 9:00 o'clock A. M., be and the same is hereby set as the day to try the issue so made up.

It appearing to the court that a venire of sixty persons is necessary to be drawn as provided by law, it is ORDERED that the said sixty persons be duly drawn and summoned to appear before this court on the date set for the trial of the said cause, and from the persons so summoned and in attendance the jury shall be organized to try the said contest and any other cases which are ready for trial during the week commencing March 30, 1964.

DONE on this the 24 day of January, 1964.

Comes the plaintiff and for answer to the contest filed in this cause says, jointly and separately:

1. It denies that the instrument dated the 6th day of April, 1961, is not the true last will and testament of Bronson
E. Lamb, deceased.

2. It denies that the decedent, Bronson E. Lamb, was mentally incompetent to make and execute a will on the 6th day of April, 1961.

3. It denies that the decedent, Bronson E. Lamb, was not of testamentary capacity on the 6th day of April, 1961.

4. It denies that the instrument dated the 6th day of April, 1961 was procured through undue influence exercised upon the decedent, Bronson E. Lamb, by Sara S. Steppe.

5. It avers that said instrument dated April 6, 1961, offered for probate by it, is the true last will and testament of Bronson E. Lamb, deceased, that he was mentally competent to make and execute a will on said date, that he was of testamentary

The attached report is a review of your account by our Directors Trust Committee. This committee is composed of the President, five Directors, Senior Vice President of the Trust Department and other senior officers of the Trust, Bond and Commercial Departments.

The first page summarizes provisions of the agreement as to powers of investment, income and principal beneficiaries and termination. The total trust assets are divided into six categories: Principal Cash, Stocks — common and preferred, Bonds — various classifications, Mortgages, Real Estate and Sundry Assets. Each category is stated in both book and market value as of the date of review, its percentage of the total trust, the gross income and percentage yield based on book value.

On the following pages, holdings of stocks are broken down by industry classification showing the percentage of holdings in each industry; and the book value, annual income expectancy and percentage yield on each investment. Other investments are similarly detailed.
