COUNT ONE:

The Plaintiff claims of the Defendants the sum of SIX HUNDRED TWENTY-FOUR DOLLARS ($624.00) due by Promissory Note made by them on the 21st day of June, 1963 and payable in monthly installments of Twenty-Six Dollars ($26.00) per month, with interest thereon.

That in and by the terms of said note, failure on the part of the Defendants to pay any installment of said note, or to fulfill any of the obligations undertaken therein should at the option of the holder without demand or notice mature all remaining installments, and the Plaintiff further avers that the Defendants defaulted in payments of said note, and declares the entire balance due and payable.

That in and by the terms of said Note, the Defendants promise to pay all cost of collection whether by suit or otherwise, including a reasonable Attorneys fee, and the Plaintiff now claims the further and additional sum of One Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($125.00) as a reasonable Attorneys fee.

That in and by the terms of said Note, the Defendants waived all rights of exemptions under the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama, and the Plaintiff now claims the benefit of said Waiver.

Mrs. Alice Duck

Dear Mrs. Duck;

Subject has been off his job about half of time during April claiming sickness as the reason. Now I do not know if such was the case or not.

With the peak season now about to start at our Station I had to discharge him. As a result of his absence so much of the time I have not been able to with-hold the usual $5.00 per week out of his earnings.

Am returning here-with the documents pertaining to the garnishment on his earnings.

Sincerely,

Wiggins Gulf Service
