The Plaintiff further says that the testimony upon which the judgment was based revealed without contradiction that at the time the accident occurred, the Defendant was driving in the Plaintiff's lane of traffic, and that it was a headon collision. DECREE

This being the day set by the Court to hear the motion of the Defendant to dismiss the Writ of Garnishment because of the discharge in Bankruptcy, and the Answer of the Plaintiff that her Judgment was non-dischargeable because her claim was based on a wanton injury. The parties appeared before the Court, through their respective Attorneys of record, and the Court having heard the evidence introduced, and the arguments of the Attorneys, it is the opinion of this Court that the wanton injury as alleged in the Plaintiff's Bill of Complaint brings the Judgment within the meaning of the "(Willful and malicious) injury" as used in the exception of the Bankruptcy Act. The facts which are the basis of the allegations of the wanton injury bring it within the exceptions, and it is not discharged.

It is, therefore, CONSIDERED, ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the Defendant's Motion to Quash the Writ of Garnishment in this cause is denied, and the Defendant is taxed with the costs, for which let execution issue.

Done this the 29th day of May, 1968.
