Personally appeared before me J. M. Ponder who after being first duly sworn deposes and says that he is the owner of Ponder & Company and has personal knowledge of the account owed him by James Washington and Annie Washington. Affiant further says that he is informed that James Washington is now deceased and that upon that information, he believes the same to be true. He further says that James Washing and Annie Washington are justly indebted to him in the amount of $585.92 from March 30, 1962 for work, labor, and materials furnished to them by him through his company. He further says that this indebtedness with the interest thereon is still due and unpaid.
