Plaintiff further alleges that on, to-wit, the 29th day of September, 1963, while he was in the employ of the defendant Peoples Ice Company, he was injured as a direct and proximate result of an accident which occurred while the plaintiff was working on the premises of the said Peoples Ice Company in Bay Minette, Alabama, and while in the process of loading ice suffered an injury to his back; that as a direct and proximate result of said accident plaintiff has suffered and still suffers pain in his low back and he has a probable herniated disc, and that all of his said injuries are permanent; that as a direct and proximate result of said accident, the plaintiff was temporarily, totally disabled from performing any type of work from, to-wit, the 29th day of September, 1963, until, to-wit, the 20th day of October, 1963, inclusive, and that as a direct and proximate result of said accident the plaintiff has suffered a permanent partial disability of his back to an undetermined extent. Plaintiff further alleges that all of his said injuries were the direct and proximate result of an accident which arose out of and in the course of his said employment by the defendant; that the defendant had actual notice of the occurrence of said accident at the time it occurred, and that at the time of the occurrence of said accident, both the plaintiff and

3. FINDINGS OF FACT AND LAW AND CONCLUSIONS

From the testimony and other evidence in this case, the Court finds as follows:

That on or about the 29th day of September, 1963, the plaintiff, Clyde D. Hicks, suffered injury as a direct and proximate result of an accident which occurred while he was in the employ of the defendant, Peoples Ice Company; that said accident occurred on the premises of the said Peoples Ice Company in Bay Minette, Alabama; that at the time and place of said accident the plaintiff was in the process of moving some ice around inside the Bay Minette plant of Peoples Ice Company when a floor board broke thereby causing him to slip and fall, and in order to prevent a block of ice from falling on his feet he caught same with arms thereby injuring his back; that at the time and place of said accident the plaintiff was acting within the line and scope and in the course of his said employment by the defendant; that at said time both the plaintiff and the defendant were subject to Article 2 of the Workers Compensation Law of the State of Alabama; that said accident arose out of and in the course of the employment of the plaintiff by the defendant; that the plaintiff's average weekly wage for the 52 weeks immediately preceding the date of said accident was $40.00; that at the time of the occurrence of said accident the plaintiff was married and had three dependent children under the age of 18 years; that the defendant had actual notice of the occurrence of said accident at the time it occurred; that as a direct and proximate result of said accident the plaintiff has suffered severe pain in his back and a possible herniated disc; that a dispute exists between the plaintiff and the defendant as to whether or not the plaintiff's injuries are permanent, but that the plaintiff is willing to accept and the defendant, by and through its workmen's compensation insurance carrier, is willing to pay to the plaintiff compensation based upon a determination that the plaintiff has suffered a permanent partial disability to his body as a whole to the extent of 15 percent thereof; that the Court finds that the plaintiff has suffered a permanent partial disability to his back and therefore to his body as a whole to the extent of 15 percent thereof; that the defendant, by and through its workmen's compensation insurance carrier, has furnished the plaintiff medical care and treatment for said accidental injuries as required by the Alabama Workmen's Compensation Law; that the defendant, by and through its workmen's compensation insurance carrier, has paid to the plaintiff compensation for the time when plaintiff was temporarily, totally disabled from performing any work, from, to-wit, the 29th day of September, 1963, until, to-wit, the 20th day of October, 1963; that the defendant, by and through its workmen's compensation insurance carrier, has paid to the plaintiff compensation through and including December 29, 1963; that the plaintiff is entitled to recover compensation at the rate of $3.90 per week for a total period of 287 weeks, of which amount the total period of 18 weeks is now due and owing, the total sum of $70.20; that the plaintiff is entitled to receive compensation at the rate of $3.90 per week for the additional period of 269 weeks, which compensation is not yet due and owing; that it is for the best interest of the plaintiff that all additional compensation due the plaintiff be paid to him in one lump sum, and the defendant is entitled to commutation thereof on the basis of 4 percent; that the defendant, by and through its workmen's compensation insurance carrier, is willing to pay to the plaintiff the said sum of $1,019.68, being the $70.20 already due and owing the plaintiff and the additional sum of $949.48, being compensation at the rate of $3.90 per week for a total period of 269 weeks commuted on a basis of 4 percent per annum, and the Court is of the opinion that a settlement of all additional compensation to which the plaintiff is entitled as a result of said accident for the said sum of $1,019.68 is for the best interest of the plaintiff and that said settlement should be, and the same hereby is, approved by the Court; and the Court is further of the opinion that it is to the best interest of the plaintiff that the said sum of $1,019.68 be paid to him in one lump sum.

JUDGMENT

THE PREMISES CONSIDERED, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the plaintiff is entitled to receive from the defendant the sum of One Thousand Nineteen and 68/100 ($1,019.68) Dollars as payment in full of all compensation due the plaintiff by the defendant for all injuries received by the plaintiff as a result of said accident.

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that of the said sum of One Thousand Nineteen and 68/100 ($1,019.68) Dollars, the plaintiff shall pay to Honorable S. Lenoir Thompson, his attorney, the sum of $450⁰⁰ for his services rendered in representing the plaintiff in this cause.

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the plaintiff have and recover of the defendant the said sum of One Thousand Nineteen and 68/100

($1,019.68) Dollars as all compensation due the plaintiff as a result of said accident; that the plaintiff have and recover the costs of this cause, for all of which let execution issue.
