Comes the defendant R. H. Vance by his attorney and demurs to the bill of complaint heretofore filed in this cause and for grounds of demurrer assigns separate and severally each of the following:

1. The complaint does not state a cause of action.
2. The complaint does not state a cause of action against the defendant R. H. Vance.
3. From aught that appears the motion to set aside the judgment was filed after the expiration of the term.
4. The averments of the complaint are mere conclusions of the pleader without averments of facts.
5. The complaint is not legally sworn to.

MS 6369

TO THE HONORABLE TELFAIR J. MASHBURN, Judge of the 28th Judicial Circuit:

Comes the Plaintiff in the above styled cause and respectfully shows unto this Honorable Court as follows:

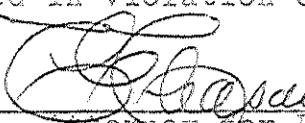

1. That heretofore on, to-wit, the 31st day of December, 1964, a Summons and Complaint was served upon him wherein Rufus Dean was the Plaintiff and John S. Woodyard was the Defendant, claiming damages in the amount of $99.48, which Summons and Complaint was returnable to the Justice Court of R. H. Vance, Justice of the Peace, Beat 14, Foley, Alabama.

2. That on to-wit, the 2nd day of January, 1965, judgment was rendered against John S. Woodyard by the said R. H. Vance, Justice of the Peace, Beat 14.

3. That a motion to set the judgment aside on the grounds that it was rendered before the expiration of three days after service in violation of the provisions of Section 396 of Title 13 of the Recompiled Code of the State of Alabama of 1958 was filed by the Plaintiff herein and was denied by the said R. H. Vance, Justice of the Peace.

4. That Section 396 of Title 13 of the Recompiled Code of 1958 of the State of Alabama provides..."that no judgment may be rendered until the expiration of three days after execution of the Bill of Complaint by service on the Defendant", and Section 12 of Title One of the Recompiled Code of the State of Alabama of 1958 provides that the day of service shall not count in the computation of days within which judgment could be rendered.

5. That the judgment rendered against the said John S. Woodyard having been rendered in violation of law, is void.
