Comes the defendant and for answer to the complaint
filed in said cause shows as follows:

1. He denies the allegations of said complaint.
2. And for further answer thereof says that the basis of said complaint was the execution of a title retention sales contract between the defendant herein and Baldwin Motor Company, assignor of said sales contract and note to Associates Discount Corporation, an Alabama corporation and that said plaintiff herein through its agents, servants or employees repossessed said automobile under the terms of the said title retention contract approximately forty-five days from the date of purchase, to-wit, January 31, 1963. Hence, said plaintiff should not recover.

3. Comes the defendant, and claims of the plaintiff by

Dear LeNoir:

As you know we filed a complaint in this case on a promissory note and you filed an answer. Later you filed a recoupment.

We discussed the recoupment by telephone and you agreed that you would not insist on the recoupment if I dismissed the original suit.

Accordingly, please have the Court take a non-suit or dismiss the case at your convenience.

Cordially yours,

FOREST A. CHRISTIAN
