RE: O. O. Jones Vs. Lanier P. Angle
Case No. 6718

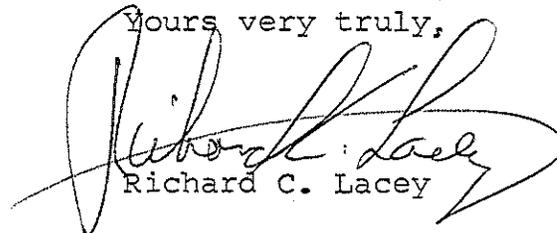

Dear Mrs. Duck:

Thank you for your letter of June 13, 1966, enclosing the rather amusing letter from Lanier P. Angle to you. I am sending you Angle's check endorsed by Dr. Jones for your disbursement. This letter is to authorize you to dismiss subject action and deduct the court costs therefrom, provided the check is good.

As regards Angle's statement concerning honoring commitments, I have no comment other than to state that apparently it was necessary to file suit to bring about this settlement. I contacted Angle and told him it was necessary to have some authorization from the attorney involved before a case could be dismissed, but for some reason, Angle was unable to comprehend this.

I shall look forward to your disbursement.

Yours very truly,

Richard C. Lacey
