CIRCUIT COURT-SPRING TERM 1918.
STATE OF ALABAMA
BALDWIN COUNTY

Plea of Defendant to Complaint.

The Defendant, for answer to the complaint, and each count thereof, both separately and severally, saith;

FIRST

It is not guilty of the matters alleged therein.

SECOND

It is not indebted in the manner and form alleged.

THIRD

It has paid the debt, for the recovery of which this suit was brought, before the action was commenced.

FOURTH

At the time said action was commenced, the plaintiff was indebted to it in the sum of Two Thousand and Thirty Nine Dollars and fifty one-hundredths dollars ($2039.50), due by liquidated demand, said sum being still due and unpaid, which it hereby offers to set-off against the demand of the plaintiff, and it claims judgment for the excess.

FIFTH

At the time said action was commenced, the plaintiff was indebted to it in the sum of Two Thousand and Thirty Nine Dollars and Fifty one-hundredths Dollars ($2039.50), due by unliquidated demand, said sum being still due and unpaid, which it hereby offers to set off against the demand of the plaintiff, and it claims judgment for the excess.
