

CLARA J. HALL,

Plaintiff.)

VS.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE
RAILROAD COMPANY, a Corporation.

Defendant.)

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY.

The plaintiff claims of the defendant the sum of One Hundred Fifty ($150.00) Dollars, as damages for that the defendant on and before the 3rd day of June, 1918, was operating a line of trains propelled by means of steam; that on or before the 3rd day of June, 1918, the defendant, who was then and there operating said line of railroad trains by and through its agents or employees so negligently operated one of its said trains that it ran upon and against five cattle of the cow kind at or near mile-post No. 652 in Baldwin County, Alabama, which said point is near to Hurricane Station in said County, and as approximate result of said negligence, defendant's train killed the said five head of cattle of the cow kind, property of the plaintiff and all to her damage in the above said amount, hence this suit.
