Dear Sir:- IN RE: Reichert vs. Sheip.

Mr. Stevens has called our attention to the fact that a larger portion of the papers contained in the court file are really our private papers and have no business amongst the file, and we have, therefore, taken these papers from the file and put them in our safe. We mention this simply because it will reduce the size of the file when returned to you.

The transcript should contain:

- ✓ 1. On the first page an index showing the page where each of the different papers copied in the transcript are to be found.
- ✓ 2. Original complaint should then follow with return of the Sheriff showing service on Mrs. Becker. Then the alias and return of the Sheriff showing service upon the defendant Sheip.
- ✓ 3. Appearance of the defendant.
- ✓ 4. Amendment of the complaint.
- ✓ 5. ~~Order of court allowing amendment.~~ Do Order -
- ✓ 6. Charges requested by the plaintiff and refused by the court should be inserted under a heading reading as follows:
"There were no written charges given at the request of the plaintiff but the following charges requested by the plaintiff in writing were refused by the court:"
- ✓ 7. After setting forth the charges refused as above indicated, the charge which was given for the defendant should be inserted under the following heading: "There were no written charges requested by the defendant which were refused, but the following are the written charges given at the request of the defendant." Here insert the written charge for defendant.

- ✓ 8. Then insert the following statement: "No oral charge was given by the court".
- ✓ 9. There should then follow the verdict of the jury under a heading: "The verdict of the jury".
- ✓ 10. Bill of Exceptions.
- ✓ 11. Security for costs.
12. Certificate of appeal and the service thereon.
13. Certificate of correctness of transcript.

Enclosed we hand you forms for the certificate of appeal and for the certificate of the transcript. The dates of the judgment and the return day of the appeal are left blank to be filled in by you.

If there is any further assistance we can give you in preparing the transcript, we will be glad to do so.

We are returning you herewith the court file in this case.

Very truly yours,
