Comes Emma B. McDavid, as administratrix and as garnishee, and answering the writ of garnishment served on her in this cause says:

This garnishee does not personally owe the defendant anything and has no property in her hands or under her control belonging to him and has no contract with him by which she will be indebted to him in future. —

Further answering the said writ of garnishment as administratrix this garnishee says that she is the administratrix of the estate of John E. McDavid, deceased, and as such administratrix has in her possession or under her control certain property belonging to the estate of said John E. McDavid, deceased, who died intestate; that said decedent was the father of the defendant J. A.
McDavid and that this administratrix may in future have certain property in her hands belonging to the said defendant but that the estate has not been finally settled and cannot be finally settled under a year from the date of letters of administration and this garnishee does not know at this time whether there will be any money or property coming to the said defendant as distributee of said estate; but further answering this writ of garnishment this garnishee says that she is informed and believes and upon such information and belief states that the defendant is indebted to the said estate and that the amount of his said indebtedness is probably greater than the amount the defendant will have as distributee of said estate, but pending final settlement this garnishee moves the court to grant her further time for finally answering the said writ of garnishment.

Before me, T.W. Richerson, the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said County, personally appeared Charles Hall as one of the attorneys of record for A.E. Walker as Superintendent of Banks for the State of Alabama liquidating the affairs of the Bank of Bay Minette, a corporation, who being duly sworn deposes and says that A.E. Walker, as superintendent of Banks for the State of Alabama, liquidating the affairs of the Bank of Bay Minette, a corporation, Plaintiff, recovered a judgment at the November term A.D. 1915, of said Circuit Court of said County against J.A. McDavid for the sum of Four Hundred Ninety-one and 13/100 ($491.13) Dollars and that Emma B. McDavid, as administratrix of the estate of John E.
