PLAINTIFF,

LEE SNYDER, DEFENDANT.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
IN CHANCERY

DEPOSITIONS OF SUNDRY WITNESSES IN BEHALF OF THE PLAINTIFF.

Elsie Snyder being first duly sworn on her oath did testify as follows:

TESTIMONY OF ELSIE SNYDER

My name is Elsie Snyder and I am over twenty-one years of age and reside at Foley, in Baldwin County, Alabama.

I was born and raised here and it has always been my home and I expect to make it my home in the future.

On the 20th day of April, 1930 I was married to the Defendant, Lee Snyder, in Milton, Florida and I lived with the Defendant until February first of this year.

During all of that time he was, by spells, very abusive. I learned after we had been married that he was of an insanely jealous disposition and at times, without any cause or excuse, he would fly into jealous rages during which he seemed to me to be almost insane. It was impossible to reason with him or explain anything to him and he would carry on like a wild man, threaten to kill me and point his revolver at me and threaten to shoot me and would often strike and otherwise abuse me.

I tried every way to get along with him and he seemed to feel that if we had children that he would not be so jealous of me and so when it began to appear that we were not going to have any children of our own we adopted a child, a boy, whom we named Kenneth Snyder and who is now about a year and half old.

However, this did not seem to change him at all and his conduct instead of getting better grew worse until I was actually afraid to live with him any longer and his threats to kill me and the baby were becoming more frequent and I was actually afraid that he would harm us and as a consequence I left him on February first last and we have not lived together since.

I have always worked and supported myself, and even when I was living with him and I am working now and am competent to take care of myself and the baby. I do not think the Defendant is a proper person to have the baby and I know that I can and will raise him and educate him properly.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. JULIA ROGERS

My name is Julia Rogers and I live in Foley, Baldwin County, Alabama and I am the mother of Elsie Snyder the Plaintiff in this case.

They were married on April 20th, 1930 and lived together until about the first of February this year.

My daughter Elsie has always been a good, steady, hardworking girl and she worked and supported herself most of the time while she was married to the Defendant.

I know that he was of a very jealous disposition and she has many times told me about the way he would carry on and threaten to kill her and that she was afraid. Although I never did see or hear him do anything of the sort myself.

My daughter is working now and earning enough to support herself and her adopted baby and I am sure that she is perfectly competent in every respect to take care of him and bring him up properly.

TESTIMONY OF ELIZABETH MCKENZIE

My name is Elizabeth McKenzie and I live in Foley, Alabama, and I am the daughter of Mrs. Rogers who has just testified in this case and a sister of Elsie Snyder, the Plaintiff.

I knew Lee Snyder, the Defendant, from the time they were married and for a while we lived right close to them and I had an opportunity to see a good deal of them and how they got along.

The Defendant is the most jealous man I think I ever saw. I have seen him come running into the house at unexpected times with his gun in his hand and threaten to kill his wife and himself and frighten her with his talk and conduct.

She has never given him the slightest cause for jealousy and yet I know that he has made life miserable for her ever since they were married.

They adopted a baby largely because she thought it might make him act differently but it never has.

I know that he has threatened her and frightened her until it has affected her health and about the first of last February she left him and they have not lived together since.

She is working and making enough to take care of herself and the baby and is in every respect qualified to take care of and raise the baby properly.
