INSTRUCTIONS TO CLERK

No item of cost will be allowed, not provided for in Section 6572 of the Code of 1907 as amended, special or local laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

Costs in appealed cases cannot be paid until appeal is finally disposed of, and certificate, made out and signed by Circuit Clerk, to be attached to transcript of the minutes now on file in this office, showing outcome of appeal is received.

Costs in the second case cannot be paid until the convict has served the sentence in the first case. Clerks should retain cost bills until they are due.

Magistrates' and Constables' fees as well as Clerks, Sheriffs, and State Witnesses must be itemized.

No fees allowed witnesses before committing Magistrate.

We do not pay for service of a subpoena upon the sheriff.

The names of all witnesses for whom the Clerk issued a subpoena and on whim the Sheriff served a subpoena must be shown regardless of whether such witnesses proved attendance or not.
