The Defendant is not ready for trial on account of the absence of Jerome Price Justice of the Peace, Foley, who if present would testify as follows: That he was the Justice of the Peace who tried this case in the Justice Court, and that he stated to the defendant after the trial of the case that the evidence upon which he was convicted in said Justice Court was fairly sufficient upon which to base a conviction. But that to give the thing the benefit of a doubt he went ahead and found the defendant guilty.
 That while the trial was in progress said Jerome Price went to the scene of the alleged accident driving but with a head pain which had occurred two or three times prior to said trial had obliterated all traces of the defendant's car.
