

Refused Charges

State

vs

Wallace Harrison

Charge no. 2

The court charges the jury that the evidence in this case is partly circumstantial, and his innocence must be presumed by the jury until his guilt, is established by evidence, in all the material aspects in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt and to a moral certainty.

Refuse
Hester
Judge

Charge no. 7

The evidence against the defendant is partly circumstantial, and his innocence should be presumed by the jury until his guilt is established by evidence, in all the material aspects of the case beyond a reasonable doubt, and to a moral certainty.

Refused
10/11/1911
Judge

Charge no. 8

The evidence against the defendant is partly circumstantial, and his innocence must be presumed by the jury, until the case against him is proved in all its material circumstances beyond a reasonable doubt; to find him guilty as charged, the evidence must be strong and cogent, and unless it is so strong and cogent as to show his guilt to a moral certainty, the jury must find him not guilty.

Refused
M. J. R. R.
R. R.

Charge no. 9

I charge you, gentlemen of the jury, that, when the evidence relied upon for a conviction is circumstantial, the chain of circumstances must be complete, and of such character as to convince beyond a reasonable doubt, and if the circumstances shown and proven, with the other evidence in the case, fails to so convince you beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty, then you should return a verdict of not guilty in this case.

Refused
M. H. Lee
Judge

Charge no. 10

The Court charges the jury that under the evidence in this case any person operating an automobile at the point where the deceased was killed had the right to presume that no person would step out suddenly in front of an approaching automobile.

Refused
1st time
2nd time

Charge no. 11

The court charges the jury that if you believe the evidence in this case you must find the Defendant not guilty.

Refused
to be fair
judge

Charge no. 12

The Court charges the jury that if you believe the evidence in this case you must find the Defendant not guilty.

Refused
10 Minutes
Judge

Charge no. 13

The court charges the jury that if you believe the evidence in this case you must find the Defendant not guilty.

Refused
Huntree
Judge

Charge no. 16

Unless the jury are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt from the evidence that the death of B. was the natural or necessary result of the defendant operating his automobile at an unlawful rate of speed, or because of some other unlawful act on the part of the defendant in the operating of his automobile, then the jury should return a verdict in favor of the defendant.

Refused
Hester
Jury

Charge No 17

I charge you, gentlemen of the jury, that, when the evidence relied upon for a conviction is circumstantial, the chain of circumstances must be complete and of such character as to convince beyond a reasonable doubt, and if the circumstances shown and proven, with the other evidence in the case, fails to so convince you beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty, then you should return a verdict of not guilty in this case.

Refused

Wm. J. Lee

J. J. Lee