I charge you Gentlemen of the jury that before you can convict the defendant, you must weigh all the evidence in should be not guilty by reason of insanity.

to raise a reasonable doubt, and the jury should acquit him given

#6 I charge you Gentlemen of the jury

#7 I charge you Gentlemen of the jury
that unless each of you is convinced

#8 I Charge you Gentlemen of the jury that the defendant cannot be convicted in this case doubt, and to a moral certainty of his guilt Sincerely

that the testimony of a witness for the and such corroborating evidence, to avail anything, must be a fact tending to show the guilt of the defendant given

Jefair J. Mablebury, Jr.

I Charge you Gentlemen of the jury that good Character itself may, in such proof of good Character you would convict
