

My name is Jessie T. Himes, I am 49 years old and I live in Stockton, Cal.
About six or eight weeks ago Leslie Lee came to my house one Friday night and he was drinking.
I had drunk some beer. He came in the front door. He looked like he had fallen in a mud hole. He came in the kitchen and sat down.
He started fussing with my wife. I told him to shut up and he said god damn the shutting up he was going to get her told. We had some more words and he came around the table with his knife out. I ran around the table and into the front room and got my 22 rifle and warned him to stop. He kept coming and I shot him one time. He fell and then got up and went out the kitchen door.
I did not see him anymore. I don't know what happened Leslie's knife nor did I ever see him with a light.

I am making this statement of my own free will and accord.
I have not been offered any inducement, held out any hope of reward or threatened in any way.
