(1) The court charges the jury that it may take into consideration flight as a circumstance tending to show guilt -

Given

High

Judge -

#2 for defendant
The Court instructs the jury that the presence of the defendant at the still without evidence of any act of his in connection with said still ~~or~~ is not sufficient in itself
to justify a conviction

Every Judge

#1 For defendant

The Court charges the jury that if the evidence does not in their opinion prove this defendant guilty beyond all reasonable doubt & to a moral certainty they must acquit the defendant.

#3 Forfeederant

The Court charges the jury that the fact that the defendant ran from the still on approach of the officers is not in itself sufficient
to justify a conviction
