

Ann Jane Gable	:	CIRCUIT COURT
Complainant	:
	:	BALDWIN COUNTY
vs	:
	:	ALABAMA
Charles William Gable	:
Respondent	:		In Equity

To the Honorable Telfair J. Mashburn, Jr., Judge of said Court, sitting in Equity, comes Ann Jane Gable and exhibits this, Her Bill of Complaint against Charles William Gable, and represents unto Your Honor as follows:

First: Complainant, whose age is 29 years, and Respondent, Charles William Gable, whose age is 32 years, intermarried April 1st 1939 at Pensacola, Florida.

Second: At the time of said marriage, the parties were both residents of Baldwin County, Alabama, and continued as husband and wife thereafter to be residents of Fairhope in said Baldwin County and still remain residents of said Fairhope although now separated from each other.

Third: To said marriage were born three children, to wit: Wayne E, now aged 9 years, Paullette Adele, now aged 4 years and Charles G., now aged 2 years.

Fourth: For some time past, Respondent has committed acts of physical violence upon the person of Complainant and has conducted himself in such manner as to put her in fear of her life, limb and health and, from his attitude and actions, there is reasonable apprehension that he might continue to do so.

The premises considered, Complainant prays that said Charles William Gable be made party defendant by due and appropriate legal process and that he be compelled to plead, demur or answer to the several paragraphs of the within Bill of Complaint and that he be further compelled to abide and obey all orders and decrees made in the premises.

Further, Complainant prays, upon a hearing of the within cause, that a decree be granted her forever divorcing her from said Charles William Gable, granting her the custody and control of said minor children, ordering Respondent to pay such amounts as alimony and support for said minor children as, to Your Honor, may seem meet and proper, and granting her such other, further and different relief as, to Your Honor, may seem meet and proper.
