Figure 1 is a line graph showing the time course of the effect of the 100 mg dose of the 12-week treatment on the mean change in the total score of the Beck Depression Inventory (BDI) from baseline to week 12. The x-axis represents 'Time (week)' from 0 to 12. The y-axis represents 'Mean change in the total score of the Beck Depression Inventory (BDI)' from -10 to 10. Two lines are plotted: a solid line for the 100 mg group and a dashed line for the 200 mg group. Both lines show a downward trend, indicating a decrease in BDI score over time. The 100 mg group starts at approximately 0.5 and ends at approximately -8.5. The 200 mg group starts at approximately 0.5 and ends at approximately -9.5. Error bars representing standard error are shown for each data point.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

OF BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA.

WILLIAM J. NELSON,
Respondent

DEPOSITION OF BERTHA L. NELSON, WITNESS FOR COMPLAINANT

The above named witness, appeared before me at the time and place hereinafter stated and upon examination by counsel for Complainant, after being sworn, testified as follows:

BERTHA L. NELSON

I am the Complainant in this cause. Like the Defendant, I am over the age of twenty-one years and a lifelong resident of Baldwin County, though at present I am temporarily employed in St. Louis. I married William J. Nelson, in Baldwin County on July 6, 1946 and we lived together as husband and wife up to the first part of October, 1948. We had gotten along fairly well and would have continued to live together but for the frictions between my husband and one of my children by a former marriage, which brought about an estrangement between us and as a result he and I ceased living together as husband and wife sometime in the early part of October of last year, and this abandonment has continued since that date with no resumption of marital relations. We have both concluded that it is best for his family and mine, as well as for us, that our marriage be dissolved. Since our separation, I lived with my children in Fairhope for a while but later left to obtain work in St. Louis, where I am now employed, but expect to return to Fairhope in the fairly near future. Mr. Nelson is living in his former home back of Point Clear. I am asking nothing of my husband except my freedom.

Bertha L. Nelson.
