TOWN OF FAIRHOPE

VS

JOSEPH B. UNGER

Charge:

Disorderly conduct on
September 15, 1944.

Complaint by Mrs. J. T. Armstrong

Plea of not guilty.

Disposition of case: Bound to grand jury.

Evidence of Officer Arnold that defendant was positively identified as man going toward scene involved shortly after eleven P.M. on this night. Complainant could not swear positively as to his identification, but, assailant was of same build and general description as Unger. Defendant claims he went home (in opposite direction) shortly after 10 P.M. on this night.

Police record in Mobile taken into consideration in binding him to grand jury.

Also, previous experience with him at show as reported by Officer Arnold.
