Dear Sis :-

In regard to the young Navy boy who forgot the $30⁰⁰ check.

I had a boy to spend 3 years in the service during world war 2, and I have a son in the service now. I have too much sympathy I guess for the boys in service, but I just don't want to appear against this young man. I feel he should be given another chance to adjust himself to society.

I am an aged woman, in poor health, we have no car, no Bus Service to Bay Minette and I would be compelled to hire a cab to go, and one to come back.

I am neither financially able or physically able to make the trip. So I trust you will ask the court to excuse me from this case.

I shall surely thank you for a reply yours very truly.
