Re: causes 7097½ and 8802½
Circuit Court Baldwin
County, Alabama

Dear Sir,

As I advised in a letter to you of a few days ago I have this date filed a petition in the Federal District Court here for an adjudication of bankruptcy of your employee James Williams which is cause No. 26,340 in Federal Court here.

I have also this date mailed Stay motions to the Clerk of Baldwin County Court requesting that all action be stayed in this court, and the court must grant these motions when this action is pending here, which makes it unnecessary that you file any further answer in either court, as the only court now that you would be required to answer would be the U.S. District court here. I believe you do have some money held out under the garnishment law on the Tarvin case, and if this is the case it should not be paid into court there. I am sure this proceeding here protects you in every respect. I have mailed copies of the motion, to the attorneys Brantley & Thompson.

Very truly yours
