Re: Farmers & Merchants Bank
Vs: Jimmy P. Peed
Case No. 7381

Dear Judge:

This case is set for Wednesday, October 18. I hope that you will be able to enter a judgment without my presence since this is the only case that I have that day.

Kindly render a judgment on a promissory waive note for $90.00 which includes interest and a $20.00 attorneys fee. You will note that the original ~~xxx~~ suit was for more than this, but he has been making payments on it and think it would be proper to take a judgment on it now to get it off the docket.

Also, should there be any Ford Motor Credit Co. cases, please enter a default judgment subject to proof of damages which I will do later. I am arranging with Mr. Bob Persons who was in Court last week, to be there next Monday to prove the cases, It should take but a few minutes to prove damages in two or three cases.

Cordially yours,

FOREST A. CHRISTIAN
