JOHNSON,
Defendants.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
AT LAW NO. 7607

COMPLAINT

The plaintiff claims of the defendants the sum of NINE HUNDRED FORTY-SIX AND 37/100 DOLLARS ($946.37), the balance due on a promissory waive note made by the defendants on December 17, 1965, and payable in thirty-six (36) monthly installments of $33.98 each, the last payment of which was made on October 17, 1966, which said note provides that in the event any installment is not paid when due, the holder may declare the full amount of the note then remaining unpaid as immediately due and payable. The plaintiff further alleges that because of the defendants' failure to pay the November 1, 1966 installment on the said note and the installments which have become due since the said date, it has elected to declare the entire balance evidenced by the said note to be immediately due and payable. The said note is the property of the plaintiff and the said indebtedness, together with the interest thereon, is still due and unpaid.

Plaintiff avers that in and by the terms of the said note the defendants waived all rights of exemption as to personal property and agreed to pay a reasonable attorney's fee which may accrue in connection with the collection of the debt evidenced by the said note, which attorney's fee the plaintiff alleges to be One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00), and which it herewith claims.
