COMES NOW Cowin Equipment Company, Inc., defendant in the above styled cause, and demurs to the plaintiff's Complaint and as grounds for said demurrer sets down and assigns the following, separately and severally:

1. For aught that appears from said count the injuries and damages suffered by the plaintiff were not the proximate result of any act or failure to act on the part of the defendant.
2. For aught that appears the plaintiff's alleged injuries and damages were not the result of any negligence of this defendant.
3. For that the allegation "as the proximate result of such negligence" is vague and indefinite in that it is impossible to determine the negligence referred to.
4. For aught that appears the plaintiff's vehicle was not used in the course of his business or profession.
5. For that the plaintiff claims damages for the loss of use of his vehicle but the Complaint does not allege that the plaintiff's vehicle was used in the course of plaintiff's business or employment.

6. For that the allegation that the automobile of the plaintiff was "bent, broken, smashed or otherwise damaged" is vague and indefinite in that it fails to set forth the damages to plaintiff's vehicle.

7. For that said count fails to allege the violation of any duty owed by this defendant to the plaintiff.

8. Said count fails to allege facts showing the violation of any duty owed by this defendant to the plaintiff.

9. For aught that appears from said count the accident did not occur on a public road.

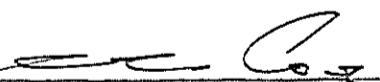

10. For aught that appears from said count the plaintiff was not at a place where he had a legal right to be at the time and place complained of.

11. For that said count fails to allege any causal connection between the alleged negligence of this defendant and the alleged injuries and damages of the plaintiff.

12. For that the agency of this defendant is not sufficiently alleged.

13. For that the agency of the defendant is alleged as a mere conclusion of the pleader.
