Dear Mrs. Duck:

I filed a suit for Olive Carol House against James Donald Henderson several months ago and we have been unable to obtain service on him.

I find that he resides at 103 Third Avenue, Atmore, and would appreciate it if you would send the summons and complaint to the Sheriff of Escambia County and give him this address.

Yours very truly,

JAMES R. OWEN

Sir,

I received a summon from Plaintiff Olive Carol House to appear in Court 10 days from June 21, 1968. I received the summons July 30, 1969. I called at the Court house and I was informed to write a letter explaining what happened.

I was south of the Perdido Exit when my car swerved over partially into the left hand lane. From out of the blue there was this car coming up behind me and she hit me in the rear.

We both decided at the time that it was both of our faults and agreed to have our own insurance compans to fix our own cars. So, I thought the situation was dropped from there.

Since there was no one hurt there was no need for me to file suit, or for her to. Especially since we both agreed to have our own cars fixed personally.

I am a preacher now and I want to do what's right, but I don't think I should pay for her car when ~~it~~ it was already agreed on as it was.
