DEMURRER

Comes now the defendants, Mary Holland White and Claudis White, separately and severally, and demur to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein and each count thereof, separately and severally, and for grounds of demurrer set down and assign, separately and severally, the following:

I.

That it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against these defendants.

II.

For that negligence is therein alleged merely as a conclusion of the pleader.

III.

For that it is vague, indefinite, and uncertain in that it does not apprise the defendants with sufficient certainty against what act or acts of negligence defendants are called on to defend.

IV.

From aught that appears this defendant breached no duty which he owed to the plaintiff at the time and place complained of in the complaint.

V.

For that the averments set up, if true, do not show liability on the part of these defendants.

VI.

No facts are alleged to show that plaintiff sustained any damage or injury as a proximate result of any negligence or breach of duty on the part of these defendants.

VII.

It does not appear from the complaint that defendants are jointly liable.
