and next friend of MYRA PHILLIPS,)	BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
a Minor,)
Plaintiff,)	AT LAW
vs.)	Mo. 8283 NEHI BOTTLING COMPANY, INC., a) corporation,) Defendant.)

The Plaintiff, a minor, suing by her Father and next friend, C. M. PHILLIPS, claims of the Defendant the sum of ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED ($1,500.00) DOLLARS as damages, for that heretofore on, to-wit: the 9th day of June, 1968, the Defendant owned and operated a bottling plant and was engaged in the manufacture, preparation and bottling of beverages, which said beverages, after being so prepared and bottled were sold and distributed to merchants to be sold by them at retail for the purpose of human consumption as a beverage. Plaintiff further avers that in the course of said business the Defendant by and through its agents, servants or employees acting within the line and scope of their duty as such, prepared, manufactured and bottled a portion of said beverage which in due course of business was purchased and received by a merchant known as Brown's General Store in Stapleton, Alabama and was by him retailed to the Plaintiff herein, and that after the Plaintiff had purchased the said bottle, and before leaving the store, the bottle exploded, injuring the Plaintiff in this: that a piece of the said glass of the bottle lodged in the Plaintiff's eye, that she had to be operated on, that she incurred large sums of money for the treatment of her said injury, that she was otherwise cut and was made sick, lame and sore, and was permanently injured, and that she was caused to expend large sums of money in and about the treatment of her injuries for doctors, nurses and hospitals, and will continue to have to spend large sums of money in and about her treatment of her said injuries in the future, and that she was permanently damaged, hence this suit.
