CARMEL BARTLEY, Defendant

And now, on this day, comes George W. Yrborough, as President of the Yarborough Machine Shop, 50 Palmetto Street, Mobile, Alabama,

Garnishee in the above stated cause, and for answer to the writ of Garnishment served upon him on the 23rd day of June, 19 69 upon oath, says that he was ~~indebted to defendant~~ indebted to the above named Defendant at the time of the service of the writ of Garnishment in the above stated cause, in the sum of $28.00 ~~and that he will~~ ~~not~~ be indebted in the future to the said Defendant by a contract then existing, or at the time of this summons; and that he has not in his possession, or under his control, personal or real property, or things in action belonging to the said Defendant.

As an explanation of this answer the affiant states that at the time this writ of garnishment was served upon him as the employer of the said defendant he owed said defendant the total sum of $28.00, and that he paid said $28.00 to said defendant yesterday morning June 23rd, 1969 as it was due him then; and that after payment to said defendant of this amount owed to him by the undersigned, the undersigned said defendant left the employ of the undersigned and is no longer in the employment of the undersigned; and will no longer be employed by the undersigned.

And Garnishee having fully answered, prays to be discharged with his reasonable costs in this behalf expended.
