MEYER PROPERTIES, INC.,

Garnishee

Comes now Meyer Properties, Inc., Garnishee in the above-styled cause, and for additional and final answer to the writ of garnishment served upon Garnishee on the 16th day of April, 1969, says that Meyer Properties, Inc., became indebted to the defendant William McCall subsequent to the service of the writ of garnishment and the Garnishee withheld from the wages of the defendant William McCall the sum of $69.08, according to the rate prescribed by law in the State of Alabama; that subsequent to the date of the time that the Garnishee became indebted to the defendant William McCall and withheld said sum of money the defendant William McCall resigned his position with the Garnishee and terminated his employment, and the Garnishee did not become indebted to the defendant at any time subsequent to the filing of the original answer of Garnishee, and that the Garnishee will not be indebted in the future to the defendant by the terms of employment or by the terms of any contract, and that the Garnishee does not have under its control or within its possession any personal or real property or things of action belonging to the defendant;

The Garnishee herewith tenders into Court the sum of $69.08, representing the amount of money withheld from the wages of the defendant as prescribed by law, and the Garnishee having fully answered prays this Honorable Court to be discharged from the writ of garnishment, with its reasonable costs expended.
