Dear Madam:

We have been served with garnishment papers on one, James Stanford. This is to advise that he had been employed full time by us; but as of now has quit several times and only works for me irregular hours. As it now stands he is indebted to us and I'm only working him at times to get back the money we have loaned to him. We cannot say when he will be able to make any payment on this garnishment, We will, however, send in the money requested when he does work regular or full time again. Thank you.

Sincerely,
