CAROLYN MORCOM, : IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF Plaintiff, : BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
-vs- :
RONALD G. BARRETT and JAMES : AT LAW
E. BARRETT, JR., jointly :
and severally, :
Defendants. : NUMBER 8671

COUNT ONE

Plaintiff claims of the Defendants, jointly and severally, the sum of FIFTY THOUSAND AND NO/HUNDREDTHS DOLLARS ($50,000.00) as damages for that heretofore and on, to-wit, December 13, 1968, Plaintiff was driving her motor vehicle southwardly on U. S. Highway 98 at a point approximately 1.8 miles west of the city limits of Fairhope, Alabama, and at a point where such highway was a public highway in and of the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama, and at such time and place, Defendant Ronald G. Barrett, an agent, servant or employee of James E. Barrett, Jr., while in the line and scope of employment as such, who was driving a motor vehicle northwardly on said U. S. Highway 98, so negligently operated such motor vehicle as to cause or allow the same to run into, upon and against the motor vehicle of Plaintiff. And Plaintiff avers that as a direct and proximate consequence and result of the negligence of Defendant Ronald G. Barrett, an agent, servant or employee of Defendant James E. Barrett, Jr., while acting in the line and scope of employment as such, Plaintiff's motor vehicle was demolished; Plaintiff sustained a head injury; lost control of the movement of one eye; her vision was impaired; she sustained a fracture of the right arm; was lacerated and battered about her body; she was caused to be hospitalized for a long period of time; was caused to lose time from her employment; was caused to incur medical bills and expenses; she suffered great pain and mental anguish; she will in the future be caused to incur further expenses for medical treatment and lose further time from her employment; she will suffer further pain and mental anguish in the future; and she suffered permanent impairment to her body, all to her damage as aforesaid.

Wherefore this suit.

COUNT TWO

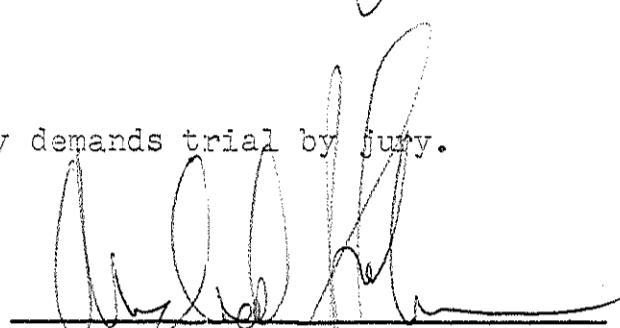

Plaintiff claims of the Defendants, jointly and severally, the sum of FIFTY THOUSAND AND NO/HUNDREDTHS DOLLARS ($50,000.00) as damages for that heretofore and on, to-wit, December 13, 1968, Plaintiff was driving her motor vehicle southwardly on U. S. Highway 98 at a point approximately 1.8 miles west of the City limits of Fairhope, Alabama, and at a point where such highway was a public highway in and of the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama, and at such time and place, Defendant Ronald G. Barrett, an agent, servant or employee of James E. Barrett, Jr., while in the line and scope of employment as such, who was driving a motor vehicle northwardly on said U. S. Highway 98, wilfully or wantonly injured Plaintiff by wilfully or wantonly driving such motor vehicle into, upon and against the motor vehicle of Plaintiff. And Plaintiff avers that as a direct and proximate consequence and result of the wilful or wanton conduct of Defendant Ronald G. Barrett, an agent, servant or employee of Defendant James E. Barrett, Jr., while acting in the line and scope of employment as such, Plaintiff's motor vehicle was demolished; Plaintiff sustained a head injury; lost control of the movement of one eye; her vision was impaired; she sustained a fracture of the right arm; was lacerated and battered about her body; she was caused to be hospitalized for a long period of time; was caused to lose time from her employment; was caused to incur medical bills and expenses; she suffered great pain and mental anguish; she will in the future be caused to incur further expenses for medical treatment and lose further time from her employment; she will suffer further pain and mental anguish in the future; and she suffered permanent impairment to her body, all to her damage as aforesaid.

Wherefore this suit.
