HOUSE BILL NO. 1219

AN ACT providing for the enforcement of the legal duty of any person to support another or others; providing for the interstate extradition of any person, who in this or any other state, is charged with the crime of nonsupport or failure to support; providing for the civil enforcement of the obligation of one person to support another or others, whether such obligation arises in this State or another State; providing reciprocity with other States having like or similar reciprocal laws; and providing the effective date hereof.

Section 6. Interstate rendition.—The governor of this state (1) may demand from the governor of any other state the surrender of any person found in such other state who is charged in this state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person in this state and (2) may surrender on demand by the governor of any other state any person found in this state who is charged in such other state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of a person in such other state. The provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent herewith shall apply to any such demand although the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and although he had not fled therefrom. Section 27. Hearings and rules of evidence.—Hearings shall be conducted before the judge without a jury. They shall be conducted in such informal manner as will best conduce to the ends of justice, and the judge shall not be bound by the technical rules of evidence.

Section 28. Application of payments.—Any order of support issued by a court of this state when acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

Section 29. Effect of participation in proceeding.—Participation in any proceedings under this act shall not confer upon any court jurisdiction of any of the parties thereto in any other proceeding.

Section 30. Severability.—If any provision hereof or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Section 20. Procedure.—The court shall conduct proceedings under this act in the manner prescribed by law for an action for the enforcement of the type of duty of support claimed.

Section 21. Order of support.—If the court of the responding state finds a duty of support, it may order the defendant to furnish support or reimbursement therefor and subject the property of the defendant to such order.

Section 23. Additional powers of court.—In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this state when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the defendant to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular,

(a) To require the defendant to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the defendant.

(b) To require the defendant to make at specified intervals to the clerk of the court or the obligee such payments as are specified by the Florida Court and to report personally to such clerk at such times as may be deemed necessary.

(c) To punish the defendant who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

Section 24. Additional duties of the court of this state when acting as a responding state.—The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court:

(a) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the defendant pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and for which support is sought. The obligor is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown.

Section 9. Remedies of a state or political subdivision thereof furnishing support.—Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to an obligee, it has the same right to invoke the provisions hereof as the obligee to whom the support was furnished for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support.

Section 10. How duties of support are enforced.—All duties of support are enforceable by complaint irrespective of relationship between the obligor and obligee. Jurisdiction of all proceedings hereunder shall be vested in the circuit court.

Section 11. Contents of complaint for support.—The complaint shall be verified and shall state the name and, so far as known to the plaintiff, the address and circumstances of the defendant and his dependents for whom support is sought and all other pertinent information. The plaintiff may include in or attach to the complaint any information which may help in locating or identifying the defendant including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the defendant, a description of any distinguishing marks of his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his finger prints, or social security number.

Section 12. Official to represent plaintiff in proceeding initiated in this state.—The state attorney, upon the request of the court, or of the state department of public welfare, or of the state welfare director, or of the district board of public welfare, shall represent the plaintiff in any proceeding initiated in this state under this act.

Section 13. Petition for a minor.—A complaint on behalf of a minor obligee may be brought by a person having legal custody of the minor without appointment as guardian ad litem.

Section 14. Duty of court of this state as initiating state.—If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the defendant owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, it shall so certify and shall cause three (3) copies of (1) the complaint, (2) its certificate and (3) this act to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

Section 15. Costs and fees.—

(a) Where the action is brought by or through the state, or an agency thereof, no clerk's fees shall be required of it, but if an order be entered under subsection (c) of this section requiring the defendant to pay the costs, such order shall be deemed to include the clerk's fees for services rendered in an action brought by or through the state or an agency thereof.

(b) If the plaintiff files with the clerk of the court of this state an affidavit that he or she is insolvent and unable to pay the costs, charges or fees otherwise payable by law, accompanied and supported by a written certificate signed by a state or local public welfare official or employee of the initiating state or by the attorney who by the laws of the initiating state may be required to represent the plaintiff, or by the judge of the court of the initiating state, to the effect that he or she has made an investigation to ascertain the truth of the plaintiff's affidavit and that he believes the same to be true, and that he or she has investigated the plaintiff's claim and that he or she believes it to be meritorious, then, upon the filing of such affidavit and certificate, regardless of whether this state is the initiating state or the responding state, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have performed in this state the necessary services of the clerk, sheriff, and court reporter in any proceedings under this act, including contempt proceedings, without cost to the plaintiff.

(c) If this state be the responding state and if the court enters an order requiring the defendant to furnish support or reimbursement therefor, the court may also by order or orders require that the defendant pay all costs, charges and fees in the proceedings incurred in this state, including costs, charges and fees incurred in contempt proceedings. If no order requiring the payment of the costs by the defendant is made under this subsection, or if such an order is made and the court thereafter finds that compliance therewith cannot or should not be compelled, the court may in its discretion order that the costs, charges and fees, except clerk's fees incurred in an action brought by or through the state or an agency thereof, be paid by the county.

(d) If this state be the initiating state, and if the plaintiff files an insolvency affidavit and certificate as permitted by subsection (b) of this section, then the court may in its discretion order that the costs, charges and fees incurred in this state be paid by the county.

Section 16. Jurisdiction by arrest.—When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the defendant may flee the jurisdiction it may (a) as an initiating state request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state; or (b) as a responding state, obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process.

Section 17. State information agency.—The state department of public welfare is hereby designated as the state information agency under this act, and it shall be its duty:

(1) To compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this act and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar act.

(2) To maintain a register of such lists received from other states and to transmit copies thereof as soon as possible after receipt to every court in this state having jurisdiction under this act.

Section 18. Duty of the court of this state as responding state.—When the court of this state, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall (1) docket the cause, (2) notify the state attorney, whose duty it shall be to carry on the proceedings, (3) set a time and place for a hearing, and (4) take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to obtain jurisdiction.

Section 19. Further duty of responding court.—If a court of this state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the complaint or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state,
