I, the undersigned, William P. Randall, the legatee named in Item Second of the last will of my aunt, Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, do hereby acknowledge delivery to me and receipt from The Merchants National Bank of Mobile as Administrator, C.T.A. of the Estate of Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, of the following articles of personal property as described and being those described in said Item Second of said Will:

One set of earrings

One diamond ring set in black onyx

An oil painting of "my" (Mary M. Aynsley's) sister Stella.

An oil painting of "my" (Mary M. Aynsley's) grandmother.

A picture of "my" (Mary M. Aynsley's) mother.

One brass stand with marble or onyx top.

The clock that belonged to "my" (Mary M. Aynsley's) father.

With reference to the "one diamond pin" also bequeathed to me by Item Second of said will; I am informed that this article has not been located after reasonable search and cannot be delivered to me; and I am further informed by my sister, Mrs. Clara VanInderstine, that prior to her death, Mrs. Mary M. Aynsley advised her that this diamond pin had been lost by her while away from her home and never found; and I am satisfied with such explanation.

The receipt is therefore a complete release and discharge of and to the said The Merchants National Bank of Mobile as Administrator, C.T.A. of the Estate of the said Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, or otherwise, with reference to all properties devised or bequeathed to me by the said will of Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, with the exception of:

"one-half of all G Bonds (United States Series G Bonds) owned by me,"

also bequeathed to me by said Item Second of said will. This receipt and release does not cover the said bequest to me of said bonds and interest accrued and paid thereon.

I, the undersigned, Clara VanInderstine, the legatee named in Item Third of the last Will of my aunt, Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, do hereby acknowledge delivery to me and receipt from The Merchants National Bank of Mobile as Administrator, C.T.A. of the Estate of Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, of the following articles of personal property as described and being those described in said Item Third of said Will:

"My" (Mary M. Aynsley's) mother's writing desk

One small mahogany table

"My" (Mary M. Aynsley's) mother's pearl-handle knives

All rings and jewelry of every kind and nature, except that given to

"my" (Mary M. Aynsley's) nephew, William P. Randall.

With reference to "all of my (Mary M. Aynsley's) mother's dishes" and "all solid silver", also bequeathed to me by Item Third of said Will; as to the silver, only one small silver salt spoon has been discovered and delivered to me; and as to the said dishes, I have examined all chinaware and other like articles located in the home of my said aunt, Mary M. Aynsley, at Daphne, Alabama, and only the following have been located, selected, delivered to, and accepted by me as within the category of this bequest to me; all with the consent and approval of all persons having an adverse interest, or their duly authorized representative:

One Vienna made candy plate

One French made small saucer

One French made plate

One French made cup

One English made Beer Stein

One old fashioned rose bowl

Though I have been intimately associated with my said deceased aunt during her lifetime and have been in her home many times during many years prior to her death, I have never had any actual knowledge of, or heard my aunt speak of, any other solid silver of consequence ever being owned by my said aunt; and though I have some remembrance of some additional chinaware being in my said aunt's home, I have no detail descriptive recollection of any specific pieces, and any such additional chinaware or dishes, if such existed, could have been lost, broken, or otherwise disposed of by my said aunt prior to her death. However, I do not wish to acknowledge receipt of "all" such dishes and solid silver as it is remotely possible that other items of this description may be subsequently discovered and claimed by me. Nevertheless, I am satisfied that a reasonable search therefor has been conducted by The Merchants National Bank of Mobile as such Administrator, C.T.A. and I am, therefore, quite willing and satisfied to release and discharge the said The Merchants National Bank of Mobile as such Administrator, or otherwise, with reference to any such possible additional items; and from any duty to account for such items at any Court, or other settlement, of the Estate of Mary M. Aynsley.

This receipt is, therefore, a complete release and discharge of and to the said The Merchants National Bank of Mobile as Administrator, C.T.A. of the Estate of the said Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, or otherwise, with reference to all properties devised or bequeathed to me by the said Will of Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, with the exception of:

"one-half of all G bonds (United States Series G Bonds)," also bequeathed to me by said Item Third of said Will. This receipt and release does not cover the said bequest to me of said bonds and interest accrued and paid thereon.

Aynsley, deceased, or otherwise, with reference to all properties devised or bequeathed to me by the said will of Mary M. Aynsley, deceased, except with relation to provision in said Item Fourth of said will, as follows:

"and in addition to this property, I have provided a Series E Bond, which will belong to him on my death and in the event that such bond does not belong to him on my death, then I give, devise and bequeath it to him."

DECEASED.

IN THE
CIRCUIT COURT OF BALDWIN COUNTY,
ALABAMA. IN EQUITY.

TESTIMONY TAKEN IN OPEN COURT, BEFORE HON. HUBERT M. HALL, JUDGE OF SAID COURT.

MR. GARET V. ALDRIDGE, A WITNESS FOR THE PETITIONER, BEING FIRST DULY SWORN, TESTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

Examination by Mr. Blackburn.

Q. Is this Mr. Garet V. Aldridge?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What is your connection with the Merchants National Bank of Mobile, Alabama?

A. One of the Trust Officers of the Merchants National Bank.

Q. I will ask you if the Merchants National Bank of Mobile has previously been appointed as Administrator Cum Testamento Annexo of the estate of Mary M. Aynsley?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Was it so appointed as Administrator Cum Testamento annexo on or about April 2, 1955?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Since the Bank's appointment, I will ask you whether or not you have handled the affairs of the estate of Mary M. Aynsley to the best of your ability?

A. Yes sir.

Q. More than six months have expired since the will was admitted to probate?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Is the estate now ready for a final settlement?

A. To the best of my belief, it is.

Q. Are the allegations of the petition true and correct to the best of your knowledge?

A. To the best of my knowledge, they are.

Q. Mr. Aldridge, with particular reference to the Series G. Bonds - that is, U. S. Savings Bonds, Series G. that are described in the will - did you make an investigation to determine what bonds Mrs. Aynsley owned during her life time, and what disposition she made of those bonds?

A. Yes I did.

Q. Just tell the Court, in your own words, what your investigation disclosed?

A. Well I investigated both from her bank account and the Government, and they all jib out where I think my facts are true. Mrs. Aynsley, during her life time purchased Series G. Bonds - U. S. Government Savings Bonds - Series G, totalling in all some $4,000.00 maturity value.

Q. What disposition did she make of those bonds?

A. We now have $3,500.00 in bonds - during her life time she cashed one $500.00 of Series G bonds, those bonds having matured, and so she now has on hand Series G. bonds that she purchased $3,000.00 which are unmatured and one $500.00 bond which has matured.

Q. Now then, did she also own some Series H. Bonds?

A. She purchased Two Series H. bonds.

Q. What denomination?

A. Two $1,000.00 bonds.

Q. Did she own them at her death?

A. Yes sir, and we now have them.

Q. With reference to the $3,500.00 maturity value of U. S. Series G. Bonds, after Mrs. Aynsley's death did you collect any interest on the $3,500.00 in bonds? Series G?

A. On $3,000.00. One $500.00 bond had not matured.

Q. What amount of interest, Mr. Aldridge, was collected on those bonds?

A. I collected - Well interest checks received since Mrs. Aynsley's death on the G. bonds totalled $75.00.

Q. She did have on hand some checks at the time of her death representing other interest collected?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Now Mr. Aldridge, did you make any search to determine if Mrs. Aynsley owned any Series E. Bonds at the time of her death?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What did you learn from that search?

A. I made a complete investigation - Mrs. Aynsley purchased in May of 1946 a total of $1325.00 - maturity value - Series E. bonds of the following denominations: One $1,000.00 bond; one $200.00 bond and one $100.00 bond and one $25.00 bond. All of these bonds were registered in the name of Mrs. Mary M. Aynsley or Albert Randall Bauer, Daphne, Alabama.

Q. Now what became of those bonds, if you know?

A. An investigation of her bank account, and copy of deposit ticket reveal that these bonds were cashed on October 2, 1952 by Mrs. Aynsley prior to her death, and credited to her personal account at the First National Bank of Mobile, total value as of that date, $1,113.00.

Q. Mr. Aldridge, with reference to Mrs. Aynsley's will, paragraph Two, she leaves certain personal property to Mr. William P.

Randall. I will ask you if that personal property, with the exception of the Series G. Bonds, have been delivered to him?

A. Yes, with the exception of one pin, which the evidence reveals was lost by Mrs. Aynsley prior to her death, and which he has exonerated the Administrator for by a receipt.

Q. That receipt, of course, is filed in the cause?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you delivered to Mrs. Clara Van Idérstine the personal property set out in Paragraph three, with the exception of the Series G. Bonds?

A. Yes sir, with the exception of some items that are set forth in the receipt.

Q. That could not be located?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you delivered to Mr. Albert Randall Bauer the property mentioned in paragraph Four of the Will, with the exception of the Series E. Bonds, and taken his receipt therefor?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you delivered to Mrs. Eliza Randall all of the personal property described in the fifth paragraph of the will and taken a receipt for the same?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you delivered the residue and remainder of the property as set forth in paragraph six of the will to Joseph J. Aynsley?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you also filed a receipt for that?

A. Yes sir.

Q. The account you have set out as a part of your final settlement is true and correct?

Q. What Attorney has represented the Bank since it has been acting as Administrator of this estate?

A. You have, sir.

Q. I also represented Mr. Joseph J. Aynsley while he was Executor?

A. According to my understanding, yes sir.

Q. I have been paid $500.00 to apply on my services as appears from the Account?

A. Yes sir.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT:

Q. When did you say she sold the Series E. Bonds?

A. They were not sold - they were cashed in.

Q. Cashed in when?

A. October 2, 1952; that is when the credit went to her account.

Q. $1125.00 represented the $1300.00 maturity value of the bond?

A. Yes sir, and it calculated that out exactly; I have checked it back and I have a copy of the deposit ticket that shows a detail--

Q. You said one bond was for $1,000.00 and payable to her or Bawer?

A. All of them are registered that way.

ON RE RE DIRECT EXAMINATION OF THIS WITNESS. HE TESTIFIED:

Examination by Mr. Blackburn.

Q. Have you computed your Statutory Commissions in connection with this estate?

A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you if they figured $672.38?

A. Yes sir, and I have taken off the amount of the fees---

MR. W. D. STAPLENTON, A WITNESS FOR THE PETITIONER, BEING FIRST DULY SWORN. TESTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

Direct examination by Mr. Blackburn.

Q. Are you Judge W. D. Stapleton?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What business are you now engaged in?

A. Real estate and insurance.

Q. How long have you been so engaged?

A. 50 years-

Q. Judge, I will ask you if you have bought and sold real property in Baldwin County, Alabama, and know its value?

A. I think I do.

Q. Have you recently looked at the Aynsley property which adjoins the school in Daphne?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What, in your opinion, is the reasonable market value of that piece of property?

A. $22,000.00.

MR. HARRY WILTERS, BEING FIRST DULY SWORN. TESTIFIED:

Direct examination by Mr. Blackburn.

Q. Is this Harry J. Wilters, Jr.?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You are a practicing Attorney in Baldwin County, Alabama, are you not?

A. I am.

Q. Are you familiar with charges made by Attorneys in this County?

A. I am.

Q. Have you examined my file in connection with this Mary M. Aynsley estate?

A. Yes I have.

Q. Have you examined the Court file?

A. Yes.

Q. What, in your opinion, is the reasonable fee to be paid to me for the services that I rendered to Mr. Joseph J. Aynsley as Executor of his wife's estate, and to The Merchants National Bank of Mobile, as Executor - - or Administrator Cum Testamento Annexo from the time the estate was opened to the time of this settlement?

A. I would say a minimum of $1,500.00.

MR. MASHBURN: Now should I put on witness about the E. Bonds as to what Mrs. Aynsley intended?

MR. CHASON: I would object to what the party intended. There is nothing filed to seek a construction of the will.

THE COURT: Mr. Aldridge says she had the E. Bonds in 1946 and that she sold the E. Bonds in 1952, before she died. In otherwords, that paragraph of the will will be held for naught, since she disposed of all of the other bonds.

MR. CHASON: Which bond did she leave him, the $1,000.00 $200.00, $100.00 or the $25.00 bond? We think that when a person disposes of an asset that eliminates that--

THE COURT: There is no way that I can see that any testimony could change that; I don't think there would be any occasion for me to say that the man is entitled to an E. Bond when she didn't have an E. bond; if she had not sold the E. Bonds, there might have been some question; I don't see how you could substitute an E - a H. bond for an E. bond.

MR. MASHBURN: I was hoping that you could substitute some money for it.

THE COURT: IF there hadn't been an E. bond there at the time the will was made, then I would say that she meant something else -- Which one of the E. bonds, that doesn't enter into it - she sold them all.

MR. ALDRIDGE BEING RECALLED FOR FURTHER ~~EX~~ DIRECT EXAMINATION, TESTIFIED:

Examination by Mr. Blackburn.

MR. Aldridge, in handling these bonds, how should the $500.00 Series B bond, which has matured be handled?

A. I am certain the Govern,ent is not going to reissue a matured bond and the $500.00 bond would have to be cashed; I would think it might be well if the decree allowed me to cash that particular matured bond and to pay $250.00 to each of the two legatees. As to the remaining $3,000.00 in Series G. Bonds, we have two $1,000.00 bonds of the same issue and two $500.00 bonds, and if the decree could decree the transfer of the bonds, two each to the named legatee, that would allow me to give an equitable distribution, and the interest I believe that has accrued since her death, or collected should be divided equally among the legatees of the bonds, and that collected prior to her death should go to the Estate.

THE COURT: That is what I say.

MR. BLACKBURN: I asked the court to determine the ownership of the bonds.

THE COURT: The E. Bonds?

MR. BLACKBURN: All of them; we can simply say that she had those at the time she made the will and disposed of them before she died, therefore, Albert Randall Bauer takes nothing under that paragraph.

THE COURT: That is right, especially in view of the fact that she has disposed of the other bonds.

C E R T I F I C A T E:

I hereby certify that the foregoing, consisting of pages 1 to 8 both inclusive, correctly sets forth a true and correct transcript of the testimony as taken by me in open Court on this day in the above styled cause.

PETITION FOR FINAL SETTLEMENT

TO THE HONORABLE HUBERT M. HALL, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA, SITTING IN EQUITY:

Now comes The Merchants National Bank of Mobile, a National Banking Association, as administrator cum testamento annexo of this said estate, and respectfully represents unto the court and your Honor as follows:

1. The Last Will and Testament of Mary M. Aynsley, who died on September 2, 1954, was admitted to probate and record in and by the Probate Court of Baldwin County, Alabama, on October 7, 1954, at which time Letters Testamentary were issued to Joseph J. Aynsley, the executor named in the said will.

2. The said Joseph J. Aynsley, who was named as executor as aforesaid, died on February 20, 1955, leaving a Last Will and Testament, which was admitted to probate and record in and by the Probate Court of Baldwin County, Alabama, on March 4, 1955, at which time Letters Testamentary were issued to The Merchants National Bank of Mobile, a National Banking Association, as executor of the said estate, and is now acting as such executor of the said estate.

3. The Estate of Mary M. Aynsley, Deceased, had not been settled at the time the said Joseph J. Aynsley died on February 20, 1955, and on April 2, 1955, Letters of Administration cum testamento annexo were issued to petitioner, as administrator cum testamento annexo. Petitioner has, since its appointment as said administrator, handled the affairs of the said estate to the best of its ability and has not used any of the funds or assets thereof for its own benefit, either directly or indirectly.

4. The administration of this said estate has been removed to and is now pending in this court.

5. The devisees and legatees named in the Last Will and Testament of Joseph J. Aynsley, Deceased, were Jane J. Unkefer and Mabel C. Cheheyl, both of whom were sisters of the said decedent and over twenty-one years of age and of sound mind. The said Jane J. Unkefer died intestate on, to-wit, July 18, 1955, and Letters of Administration were issued to the said Mabel C. Cheheyl by the Probate Court of Cuyahoga County, Ohio, on, to-wit, July 26, 1955. The said Letters of Administration are now in full force and effect and the said Mabel C. Cheheyl is acting as administratrix of the Estate of Jane J. Unkefer, Deceased. The said Mabel C. Cheheyl is a non-resident of the State of Alabama and resides in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. Her address is c/o The Carriage Shop, 1212 Chester Avenue, Cleveland 14, Ohio.

6. More than six months have expired since the Last Will and Testament of the said decedent, Mary M. Aynsley, was admitted to probate and record in and by the Probate Court of Baldwin County, Alabama. All claims against the said estate, except those hereinafter referred to, have been fully paid. There is no need for continuing the administration of the said estate and it should now be finally settled.

7. The only persons interested in this settlement, other than the petitioner and the petitioner, as executor of the Estate of Joseph J. Aynsley, Deceased, and Mabel C. Cheheyl, individually and as administratrix of the Estate of Jane J. Unkefer, are the legatees mentioned in Paragraphs Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth of the Last Will and Testament of the said decedent, Mary M. Aynsley, namely, William P. Randall, 4023 Obispo Street, Tampa, Florida; Clara Van Iderstine, Daphne, Alabama; Albert Randall Bauer, 4012 Old Shell Road, Mobile, Alabama; and Eliza Randall, Daphne, Alabama, all of which said parties are over twenty-one years of age and of sound mind.

8. All of the personal property devised to the four said legatees in and by the Last Will and Testament of the said decedent, Mary M. Aynsley, except the United States Government Bonds, has been delivered to the said parties and they have executed and delivered receipts therefor to petitioner, which receipts are filed with the petitioner's vouchers in this cause and are numbered 10, 11, 12 and 13.

9. Petitioner, as said administrator, has had cash receipts of Eight Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-four and 75/100 Dollars ($8,944.75), and has expended Six Hundred Ninety-four and 26/100 Dollars ($694.26), leaving a cash balance of Eight Thousand Two Hundred Fifty and 49/100 Dollars ($8,250.49) to be distributed on this final settlement. The said cash receipts and disbursements are itemized in the lists of cash receipts and cash disbursements which are attached hereto and made a part hereof. Vouchers for all of the said disbursements are filed herewith.

Petitioner, as said administrator, has distributed various items of personal property passing under Paragraphs Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth of the Last Will and Testament of the said decedent, Mary M. Aynsley, at the appraised valuation of Fourteen Hundred Twenty-two and 50/100 Dollars ($1422.50) and has for distribution on this final settlement the stocks and bonds which are described in the list of other personal property, which is attached to and forms a part of this petition.

A recapitulation statement of receipts and disbursements is also attached to and made a part of this petition.

10. The United States Government Bond or some of them, which are specifically described in the list of personal property for distribution as set out in this petition, are claimed by some of the legatees named in the Last Will and Testament of the said decedent, Mary M. Aynsley, and also by Mabel C. Cheheyl, individually and as administratrix of the Estate of Jane J. Unkefer, Deceased, who claim title thereto through the said Last Will and Testament of Joseph J. Aynsley, Deceased.

11. The attorney's fee due to J. B. Blackburn for representing Joseph J. Aynsley as executor of this said estate and for representing petitioner as administrator of this said estate has not been fully paid.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that the court will take jurisdiction of this petition, appoint and set a day to hear it and give notice of the filing of this petition and of the date set for hearing same to all necessary and proper parties in the form and manner prescribed by law.

Petitioner further prays that on the hearing of this said petition the court will grant unto it the following relief:

- A. That the amount due by petitioner to J. B. Blackburn, its solicitor of record, for services rendered by him to Joseph J. Aynsley, former executor, and to petitioner in connection with this estate be determined and the balance due him be ordered paid.
- B. That the commissions due to petitioner, as said administrator, be determined and ordered paid.
- C. That the court costs incurred in connection with the administration of this said estate be determined and ordered paid.
- D. That the ownership of the United States Government Bonds described in this petition be determined and that petitioner be directed to deliver the said bonds to those who are determined to be owners thereof.
- E. That petitioner's accounts and vouchers be audited and stated, that all payments due those who take under the said will be determined and ordered paid, and that on compliance by petitioner with all of the terms and provisions of the said decree petitioner be discharged from all other and further liability as such administrator cum testamento annexo.
- F. Petitioner further prays for such other, further and general relief as it may be equitably entitled to, the premises considered.
