Re: Our file # DX-69

Chute

Dear Mr. Lacey:

We are in receipt of yours of December 10, 1970, as to the captioned matter. We had a discussion with Mr. Chute shortly after the maturity date of the policy in question. He informed us that he was quite concerned about the fact that Lauren was not at the University that he thought she was previously enrolled in. However, he has learned of her recent enrollment in Springhill College in Mobile, Alabama and is satisfied that she is persuing her education.

Therefore, in accordance with the agreement previously entered into with you by the undersigned on behalf of Mr. Chute, enclosed please find three checks totaling $5,000.00 representing the full proceed of the Home Life Insurance Company policy for the use and benefit of Lauren Chute, in particular, her education.

By copy of this letter we are notifying the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama, of the compliance of Mr. Chute with the order rendered October 22, 1969, and furnishing the Court with a copy of the checks presented in satisfaction of this order.

We believe that this now closes this matter in its entirety.

With best regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

Re: William S. Chute vs.
Nancy R. Chute
Our File: (DX)-69

Dear Mr. Lacey:

We have had an opportunity to review the entire matter and circumstances surrounding the educational policy involved herein with Mr. William S. Chute, our client. In particular, we have reviewed and discussed the judgment of October 22, 1969, executed by the Circuit Judge in and for the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama, in detail.

Mr. Chute has assured this office that he will abide with the Court's Order of October 22, 1969, by seeing to it that the proceeds of the Home Life Insurance Policy are properly paid toward his daughter's education, upon maturity of the policy. In fact, he has advised that this has been his intention all along. Any confrontation or words which he may have had with his former wife, have not altered his original intention of seeing to it that the proceeds go to Lauren's education.

Mr. Chute expressed great pride in his daughter's talent and the importance of an Oberlin College education.

Be assured that he will continue to pay the necessary premium to Home Life Insurance Company of New York so that the policy will be in proper force and effect through the time of its maturity, May 25, 1970.

If we can be of any further service to you in this matter, please feel free to call upon us.

With best regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT, SITTING IN EQUITY:

Now comes, Nancy RitcheyHead, formerly known as Nancy Rebekah Chute, the Complainant in the above entitled cause, and shows unto Your Honor and to this Honorable Court as follows:

1. That your Petitioner and William Staaake Chute, were divorced by decree rendered in this Honorable Court on the 21st day of January, 1958, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and made a part hereof as if wholly set forth herein.

2. That by the terms of said decree the Court ordered the parties to abide by a stipulated agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and made a part hereof as if wholly set forth herein.

3. That by the terms of said stipulated agreement in Paragraph 3 the parties had made an agreement for the disposition of real and personal property and that part of this personal property consisted of a policy of insurance with the Home Life Insurance Company of New York forthe education of the minor child, Lauren Chute, of the marriage of your Petitioner and respondent.

4. Your Petitioner avers that she, for many years, was employed and contributed to the payment of the premiums on said insurance policy prior to the dissolution of the marriage of your Petitioner and the Respondent; and your Petitioner further shows that the policy of insurance was made in the name of the respondent when the said policy was first acquired; your Petitioner further shows that part of the terms of the stipulated agreement relating to Paragraph 3 was the agreement between your Petitioner and the respondent that the respondent would continue to pay the premiums on the policy of insurance in order that the minor child, Lauren Chute, would receive the proceeds for the policy upon the attainment of the age of eighteen (18).

5. Your Petitioner has received threats from the respondent that it was the intention of the respondent to convert the said policy into cash and thereby deny to the child of your Petitioner and the respondent sorely needed capital to further the education of said child and that Your Petitioner fears that the respondent, who is now living in New Orleans, Louisiana will carry out this threat and divert the proceeds of the insurance policy before your Petitioner is able to proceed against the respondent in ordinary court procedures.

WHEREOF, THE PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Petitioner prays that the court will serve pleas to the respondent by registered mail and that Your Honor will enter a temporary order restraining the respondent from converting the policy of insurance aforesaid prior to the date of the date this cause may be heard and that upon a final hearing that your Honor will enter an Order requiring the respondent to continue to pay the premiums on said policy of insurance and that Your Honor will enter an Order requiring the respondent to turn over to the minor child, Lauren Chute, the proceeds of said policy at the time said policy reaches maturity; and your Petitioner prays for all other, further, different and general relief to which she may be entitled.
