STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE UNIFORM RECIPROCAL ENFORCEMENT OF SUPPORT ACT
ACT 8, PUBLIC ACTS OF 1952, AS AMENDED BY ACT 202, PUBLIC ACTS OF 1953

AN ACT relative to the extradition of persons charged with failure to provide support for dependents and to provide for the enforcement by circuit courts in chancery of this state of the duty of such persons to support their dependents in accordance with the requirements of the laws of other states, having reciprocal legislation, and to grant to such courts power to enforce such obligations by procedures including contempt; and to prescribe the procedure to be followed by such courts in case of proceedings to require enforcement of the duty to support residents of this state by those obligated to furnish such support through proceedings in courts of other states; and to prescribe rules of evidence in such proceedings.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Sec. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "uniform reciprocal enforcement of support act."

Sec. 2. The purposes of this act are to improve and extend by reciprocal legislation the enforcement of duties of support and to make uniform the law with respect thereto.

Sec. 3. As used in this act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "State" includes any state, territory or possession of the United States and the District of Columbia in which this or a substantially similar reciprocal law has been enacted.

(2) "Initiating state" means any state in which a proceeding pursuant to this or a substantially similar reciprocal law is commenced.

(3) "Responding state" means any state in which any proceeding pursuant to the proceeding in the initiating state is or may be commenced.

(4) "Court" means the chancery division of any of the circuit courts of this state and, when the context requires, means the court of any other state as defined in a substantially similar reciprocal law.

(5) "Law" includes both common and statute law.

(6) "Duty of support" includes any duty of support imposed or impossible by law, or by any court order, decree or judgment, whether interlocutory or final, whether incidental to a proceeding for divorce, judicial (legal) separation, separate maintenance or otherwise.

(7) "Obligor" means any person owing a duty of support.

(8) "Obligee" means any person to whom a duty of support is owed.

Sec. 4. The remedies herein provided are in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies.

Sec. 5. The duty of support imposed by the laws of this state or by the laws of the state where the obligee was present when the failure to support commenced as provided in section 8 and the remedies provided for enforcement thereof, including any penalty imposed thereby, bind the obligor regardless of the presence or residence of the obligee.

Sec. 6. The governor of this state (1) may demand from the governor of any other state the surrender of any person found in such other state who is charged in this state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person in this state; and (2) may surrender on demand by the governor of any other state any person found in this state who is charged in such other state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of a person in such other state. The provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent herewith shall apply to any such demand, although the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and although he had not fled therefrom. Neither the demand, the oath, nor any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice, or at the time of the commission of the crime was in the demanding or the other state.

Sec. 7. Any obligor contemplated by section 6, who submits to the jurisdiction of the court of such other state and complies with the court's order of support, shall be relieved of extradition for desertion or non-support entered in the courts of this state during the period of such compliance.

Sec. 8. Duties of support enforceable under this law are those imposed or impossible under the laws of any state where the alleged obligor was present during the period for which support is sought or where the obligee was present when the failure to support commenced, at the election of the obligee.

Sec. 9. Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof has furnished or is furnishing support to an obligee, it shall have the same right to invoke the provisions hereof as the obligee to whom the support was furnished for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support.

Sec. 10. Jurisdiction of all proceedings hereunder shall be vested in the circuit court in chancery of the county of petitioner's residence, whenever proceedings hereunder are initiated in this state, or of the county where the respondent resides or may be found, whenever such proceedings shall have been initiated in another state. Proceedings for support hereunder may be initiated by petition filed in the appropriate court irrespective of the relationship between obligor and obligee.

Sec. 10a. In all instances in which a public support burden has been incurred or is threatened, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to represent the petitioner in initiating and conducting proceedings under this act: Provided, That the petitioner may be represented in any proceedings by private counsel, at his own expense.

Sec. 11. The petition shall be verified and shall state the name and, so far as known to the petitioner, the addresses and circumstances of the respondent, his dependents for whom support is sought and all other pertinent information. The petitioner may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the respondent, including, but without limitation, by enumeration, a photograph of the respondent, a description of any distinguishing marks on his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his fingerprints or social security number.

All petitions filed in accordance with this act shall be filed by the clerk of the court as a miscellaneous matter.

Sec. 11a. A petition on behalf of a minor obligee may be brought by a person having legal custody of the minor without appointment as next friend.

Sec. 12. If the court of this state, acting as an initiating state, finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property, he shall so certify and shall cause 3 copies of the petition, the court's certificate and this act, to be transmitted to the court in the responding state within the jurisdiction of which the respondent is alleged to reside or be present. If the name or address of such court is unknown, or if the respondent is no longer within the jurisdiction of the named court and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state, such copies may be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state with a request that it forward them to and file them with the proper court, and that such court acknowledge the receipt thereof to the initiating state.

Sec. 12a. When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the respondent may flee the jurisdiction, it may (1) as an initiating state, request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state; or (2) as a responding state, obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process.

Sec. 12b. The state department of social welfare is hereby designated as the state information agency under this act, and it shall be its duty:

(1) To compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this act and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar act; and

(2) To maintain a register of such lists received from other states and to transmit copies thereof as soon as possible after receipt to every court in this state having jurisdiction under this act.

Sec. 13. When the court of this state, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall (1) docket the cause; (2) notify the prosecuting attorney of the county, who shall be thereby charged with the duty of carrying on the proceedings; (3) set a time and place for a hearing; and (4) take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to obtain jurisdiction.

Sec. 13a. If a court of this state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the petition or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the respondent or his property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state.

Sec. 13b. The court shall conduct proceedings under this act in the manner prescribed by law for an action for the enforcement of the type of duty of support claimed.

Sec. 14. If the court of the responding state finds a duty of support, it may order the respondent to furnish support or reimbursement therefor and subject the property of the respondent to such order.

Sec. 15. The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall cause to be transmitted to the court of the initiating state a copy of all orders of support or orders for reimbursement therefor.

Sec. 16. In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this state when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the respondent to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders, and in particular:

(a) To require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the respondent.

(b) To require the respondent to make payments at specified intervals to the clerk of the court, the friend of the court, or the obligee, as specified in the order, and to report personally to such clerk or friend of the court at such times as may be deemed necessary and as required by such order.

(c) To punish the respondent who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

Sec. 17. The court of this state, when acting as a responding state, shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court or the friend of the court, in counties having a friend of the court:

(a) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state; and

(b) Upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

Sec. 18. The court of this state, when acting as an initiating state, shall have the duty which may be carried out through the clerk of the court or the friend of the court, in counties having a friend of the court, to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the respondent or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

Sec. 19. Husband and wife are competent witnesses (and may be compelled) to testify to any relevant matter in connection herewith.

Sec. 20. Expenses of stenographic records of court proceedings and of exemplification of court records, and all other costs incurred by the court or other public agency in proceedings under this act, shall be a county charge and shall be paid out of the county treasury, but the court, in its discretion, may require such reimbursement thereof from the respondent or other party to the proceeding as may appear equitable. Where the action is brought by or through the state or an agency thereof, there shall be no filing fee.

Sec. 21. Any order of support issued by a court of this state when acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

Sec. 22. Participation in any proceedings under this act shall not confer upon any court jurisdiction of any of the parties thereto in any other proceedings.
