My name is Lydia Ann Rice and I am a resident of Baldwin County, Alabama. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am the Complainant in the above styled cause. The Respondent and I lived together as man and wife until October 7, 1955. On that day he had been drinking heavily and threatened to do bodily harm to my person. We were riding in our automobile and he told me to get out—that he wanted me standing up so he could knock me down. I refused to get out of the car. On numerous occasions prior to that time he had actually struck me. The Respondent is a heavy drinker and has a violent temper on such occasions when he is drinking. I am of the opinion that if we continue to live together he will do me physical harm and bodily injury.
