ACTION FOR NON-SUPPORT

TO THE HONORABLE, THE TWENTY-SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN ITS CAPACITY AS JUVENILE COURT, FOR THE PARISH OF ST. TAMMANY, STATE OF LOUISIANA:

The petition of Mozell Gant Allen, of lawful age, a resident of 458 Napoleon Ave., Slidell, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana for the use and benefit of the minor children Harold, James Ray, Rebecca, Paul and Billie Jean with respect represents that:

That Mozell Gant Allen and James Edward Allen were married on or about September 1, 1946 and Divorced December 4, 1957 and that there was born to the said marriage the following named children, to-wit:

| NAME | SEX | DATE OF BIRTH |
|-------------|--------|---------------|
| Harold | Male | 3/15/48 |
| James Ray | Male | 3/13/50 |
| Rebecca | Female | 12/30/51 |
| Paul | Male | 1/6/53 |
| Billie Jean | Female | 8/5/54 |

On or about 1950, the said husband and wife established a matrimonial domicile at New Orleans, Parish, Louisiana; that they continued to reside at the said matrimonial domicile until 1954, when defendant deserted his wife and the minor children; said wife and the minor children are presently residing and domiciled at 458 Napoleon Avenue, Slidell, St. Tammany, Parish, Louisiana. The minor children are destitute and in necessitous circumstances and are in need of support, maintenance, and education.

The defendant, father of the minor children, has refused to fulfill his obligation of supporting, maintaining and educating his minor children from May 1966, until this date, and continues to refuse to support, maintain and educate his minor children.

The minor children are in need of ~~forty~~ forty  ($ 40.00) Dollars per ~~month~~ for their support, maintenance and education.

That defendant is now residing at Stockton Alabama, works for Alabama Shipyard in Mobile where he is earning approximately $4 to $4.50 per hour as welder dollars per month, according to the best of petitioner's knowledge, information and belief.

That the State of Alabama, wherein the defendant is presently residing has enacted a law substantially similar to Louisiana Acts of 1952, No. 510 (R. S. 13:1651-13:1668). The Juvenile Court of Baldwin County can obtain jurisdiction over the defendant or his property. The minor children are entitled to relief under provisions of Act No. 510 of 1952, and the subsequent amendments thereof.

Mrs. Allen had been receiving support money through a URESA action filed in New Orleans, La., Docket No. 1053. She has recently moved to this Parish and therefore had to file new papers. Mr. Allen had been ordered to pay $20.00 per week a number of years ago, at which time he was only working part time. For the last two months he has only sent $6.00 per week. Please review this case and his paying ability and the possibility of his increasing his payments to $40.00 per week.

Petitioner is a citizen of the State, and, because of her poverty and want of means, she is unable, either to pay the costs of this suit in advance, or as they accrue, or to give bond for the payment of these costs, and desires to file and prosecute this action under the provisions of R. S. 13:4525.

WHEREFORE PETITIONER PRAYS THAT:

She be permitted to prosecute this action under the provisions of R. S. 13:4525. After due proceedings had, there be made a determination that the minor children are in need of support, maintenance and education; there be made a determination that the named defendant owes a duty of support, maintenance and education to the minor children, namely:

Harold

James Ray

Rebecca

Paul

Billie Jean

that this Court determine that the Juvenile Court of Baldwin County Bay Minette, State of Alabama, may obtain jurisdiction over the defendant; this proceeding be completed under the provisions of the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Law of the responding state, and all general and equitable relief be accorded petitioner, for the use and benefit of the minor children, as the nature of the case may require.

Acts 1952, No. 510, § 12.

§ 1667. Order of support

If the court of the responding state finds a duty of support, it may order the defendant to furnish support or reimbursement therefor and subject the property of the defendant to such order. Acts 1952, No. 510, § 13.

FILED July 20, 1966

DY. CLERK

ACTION FOR NON-SUPPORT

TO THE HONORABLE, THE TWENTY-SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN ITS CAPACITY AS JUVENILE COURT, FOR THE PARISH OF ST. TAMMANY, STATE OF LOUISIANA:

The petition of Mozell Gant Allen, of lawful age, a resident of 458 Napoleon Ave., Slidell, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana for the use and benefit of the minor children Harold, James Ray, Rebecca, Paul and Billie Jean with respect represents that:

That Mozell Gant Allen and James Edward Allen were married on or about September 1, 1946 and Divorced December 4, 1957

and that there was born to the said marriage the following named children, to-wit:

| NAME | SEX | DATE OF BIRTH |
|-------------|--------|---------------|
| Harold | Male | 3/15/48 |
| James Ray | Male | 3/13/50 |
| Rebecca | Female | 12/30/51 |
| Paul | Male | 1/6/53 |
| Billie Jean | Female | 8/5/54 |

On or about 1950, the said husband and wife established a matrimonial domicile at New Orleans, Parish, Louisiana; that they continued to reside at the said matrimonial domicile until 1954, when defendant deserted his wife and the minor children; said wife and the minor children are presently residing and domiciled at 458 Napoleon Avenue, Slidell, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana. The minor children are destitute and in necessitous circumstances and are in need of support, maintenance, and education.

The defendant, father of the minor children, has refused to fulfill his obligation of supporting, maintaining and educating his minor children from May 1966, until this date, and continues to refuse to support, maintain and educate his minor children.

The minor children are in need of ~~sixty~~ forty ~~~~ ($ 40.00) Dollars per ~~month~~ month for their support, maintenance and education.

That defendant is now residing at Stockton Alabama, works for Alabama Shipyard in Mobile where he is earning approximately $4 to $4.50 per hour as welder dollars per month, according to the best of petitioner's knowledge, information and belief.

That the State of Alabama, wherein the defendant is presently residing has enacted a law substantially similar to Louisiana Acts of 1952, No. 510 (R. S. 13:1651-13:1668). The Juvenile Court of Baldwin County can obtain jurisdiction over the defendant or his property. The minor children are entitled to relief under provisions of Act No. 510 of 1952, and the subsequent amendments thereof.

Mr. Allen had been ordered to pay $20.00 per week a number of years ago, at which time he was only working part time. For the last two months

Petitioner is a citizen of the State, and, because of her poverty and want of means, she is unable, either to pay the costs of this suit in advance, or as they accrue, or to give bond for the payment of these costs, and desires to file and prosecute this action under the provisions of R. S. 13:4525.

WHEREFORE PETITIONER PRAYS THAT:

She be permitted to prosecute this action under the provisions of R. S. 13:4525. After due proceedings had, there be made a determination that the minor children are in need of support, maintenance and education; there be made a determination that the named defendant owes a duty of support, maintenance and education to the minor children, namely:
