> Re: Norma W. Lane vs. Fred A. Albertson Your RESL 9620 Our 3949

Dear Sir:

Reference your letter of February 11, 1957, to Mrs Alice J. Duck, Clerk of this court, relative to the imability of your marshall to secure service on above named respondent.

This is to advise that it is not possible for us to proceed in this matter with a criminal proceeding and get the defendant back to this state as such a proceeding would be a misdemeanor and extradition would not be granted. Moreover, a complempt citation would not get him returned either.

It is requested that you again ask your marshall to try to find out the name of the ship Mr Albertson is on, and when it will next dock, and be waiting at the dock when it pulls in and arrest him at that time. For us back here it is just an impossibility to do this curselves. Of course, we understand that this make take a considerable period of time, but since the Court costs have been paid it would be greatly appreciated if you would lend every effort possible to bring him into your court.

Very bruly yours,

Kenneth Cooper Circuit Solicitor

Re: Norma W. Lane v. FredA.Albertson No. RESL 9620

Dear Madam:

An attempt was made to serve the defendant in the abovecaptioned Reciprocal case at the address given in the complaint.

Our Marshal advises us that he was unable to serve the defendant due to the fact that he is a seaman and at the present time is at sea. His return date is unknown. The person giving the information advised that when the defendant is home, he is only there for an hour or two and then is gone again.

Possibly the only way to proceed in this matter will be by the filing of a Criminal proceedings.

Yours truly,

Dear Sira

Reference above styled cause filed by the complainant on & January, 1957 in this Court, and forwarded to your court for action.

The Clerk of this Court isholding a receipt from your office, dated Jan 16th, 1957, Tracer No. 166488, in the amount of $16.50, to pay the court costs there in this proceeding.

I have this date received a request from the complainant, Mrs Lane, requesting that this proceeding be dismissed if it is at all possible. She states that the respondent has contacted her and the matter has been settled between themselves.

It is therefore requested that the above styled cause now pending in your court be dismissed, and if possible the court costs previously filed be returned to this Court. For your information, I was informed on February 11, 1957, or thereabouts, that the marshall there was unable to secure service on this respondent. And having heard nothing from your court in this matter I presume no service was ever secured. Such information was received from Hon Richard E. Pachtman.

Your cooperation in this cause is greatly appreciated.
