CHAPTER 1290

An act to repeal Title 10a, comprising Sections 1650 to 1681, inclusive, of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to add a new Title 10a, comprising Sections 1650 to 1690, inclusive, to Part 3 of said code, providing a civil and criminal procedure for enforcement of the duties of support.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 10a, comprising Sections 1650 to 1681, inclusive, of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, is repealed.

SEC. 2. Title 10a, comprising Sections 1650 to 1690, inclusive, is added to Part 3 of said code, to read:

TITLE 10a. UNIFORM RECIPROCAL ENFORCEMENT OF SUPPORT ACT

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1650. This title is known and may be cited as the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act.

1651. This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

1652. The purposes of this title are to improve and extend by reciprocal legislation the enforcement of duties of support and to make uniform the law with respect thereto.

1653. As used in this title unless the context requires otherwise,

(1) "State" includes any state, territory or possession of the United States and the District of Columbia in which this or a substantially similar reciprocal law has been enacted.

(2) "Initiating state" means any state in which a proceeding pursuant to this or a substantially similar reciprocal law is commenced.

(3) "Responding state" means any state in which any proceeding pursuant to the proceeding in the initiating state is or may be commenced.

(4) "Court" means the superior court and when the context requires, means the court of any other state as defined in a substantially similar reciprocal law.

(5) "Law" includes both common and statute law.

(6) "Duty of support" includes any duty of support imposed or imposed by law, or by any court order, decree or judgment, whether interlocutory or final, whether incidental to a proceeding for divorce, judicial separation, separate maintenance or otherwise.

(7) "Obligor" means any person owing a duty of support.

(8) "Obligee" means any person to whom a duty of support is owed.

(9) "Prosecuting official" means the district attorney, city attorney, or city prosecutor charged with the prosecution of criminal offenses in the city or other area in which the obligor is alleged to be present.

1654. The remedies provided in this title are in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies.

1655. Duties of support arising under the law of this State, when applicable under Section 1670, bind the obligor, present in this State, regardless of the presence or residence of the obligee.

CHAPTER 2. CRIMINAL ENFORCEMENT

1660. The Governor of this State (1) may demand from the Governor of any other state the surrender of any person found in such other state who is charged in this State with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person in this State and (2) may surrender on demand by the Governor of any other state any person found in this State who is charged in such other state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of a person in such other state. The provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent herewith shall apply to any such demand although the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and although he had not fled therefrom. Neither the demand, the oath nor any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice, or at the time of the commission of the crime was in the demanding or other state.

1661. Any obligor contemplated by Section 1660, who submits to the jurisdiction of the court of such other state and complies with the court's order of support, shall be relieved of extradition for desertion or nonsupport entered in the courts of this State during the period of such compliance.

CHAPTER 3. CIVIL ENFORCEMENT

1670. Duties of support enforceable under this title are those imposed or imposed under the laws of any state where the alleged obligor was present during the period for which support is sought or where the obligee was present when the failure to support commenced, at the election of the obligee.

1671. Whenever the State or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to an obligee, it has the same right to invoke the provisions hereof as the obligee to whom the support was furnished for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support.

1672. All duties of support are enforceable by action irrespective of relationship between the obligor and obligee. Jurisdiction of all proceedings hereunder shall be vested in the superior court.

1673. The complaint shall be verified and shall state the name and, so far as known to the plaintiff, the address and circumstances of the defendant and his dependents for whom support is sought and all other pertinent information. The plaintiff may include in or attach to the complaint any information which may help in locating or identifying the defendant including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the defendant, a description of any distinguishing marks of his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his fingerprints, or social security number.

1674. The prosecuting official may, upon the request of the court, represent the plaintiff in any proceeding under this title.

1675. A complaint on behalf of a minor obligee may be brought by a person having legal custody of the minor without appointment as guardian ad litem.

1676. If the court of this State acting as an initiating state finds that the complaint sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the defendant owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of (1) the complaint, (2) its certificate, and (3) this act to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court are unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

1677. A court of this State acting either as an initiating or responding state may in its discretion direct that any part of or all fees and costs incurred in this State shall be waived, including without limitation by enumeration, fees for filing, service of process, seizure of property, and stenographic service of both plaintiff and defendant, or either. Where the action is brought by or through the State or an agency thereof, there shall be no filing fee, library fee, or reporter's fee.

1678. When the court of this State, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the defendant may flee the jurisdiction it may (a) as an initiating state request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state; or (b) as a responding state, obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process.

1679. The Attorney General is hereby designated as the state information agency under this title, and it shall be its duty:

(1) To compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this State having jurisdiction under this title and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar law.

(2) To maintain a register of such lists received from other states and to transmit copies thereof as soon as possible after receipt to every court in this State having jurisdiction under this title.

1680. When the court of this State, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall (1) docket the cause, (2) notify the prosecuting official, (3) set a time and place for a hearing, and (4) take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this State to obtain jurisdiction.

1681. If a court of this State, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the complaint or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the defendant or his property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended complaint from the court in the initiating state.

1682. The court shall conduct proceedings under this title in the manner prescribed by law for an action for the enforcement of the type of duty of support claimed.

1683. If the court of the responding state finds a duty of support, it may order the defendant to furnish support or reimbursement therefor and subject the property of the defendant to such order.

1684. The court of this State when acting as a responding state shall cause to be transmitted to the court of the initiating state a copy of all orders of support or for reimbursement therefor.

1685. In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this State when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the defendant to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular

(a) To require the defendant to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the defendant.

(b) To require the defendant to make payments at specified intervals to the probation officer of the county or the obligee and to report personally to such probation officer at such times as may be deemed necessary.

(c) To punish the defendant who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

1686. The court of this State when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the probation officer of the county:

(a) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the defendant pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and

(b) Upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the defendant.

1687. The court of this State when acting as an initiating state shall have the duty which may be carried out through the probation officer of the county to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the defendant or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

1688. Laws attaching a privilege against the disclosure of communications between husband and wife are inapplicable to proceedings under this title. Husband and wife are competent witnesses and may be compelled to testify to any relevant matter, including marriage and parentage.

1689. Any order of support issued by a court of this State when acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

1690. Participation in any proceedings under this title shall not confer upon any court jurisdiction of any of the parties thereto in any other proceeding.

SEC. 3. If any provision hereof or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Dear Joseph:

Reference is made to my letter of 23 November, 1957, concerning the payments for the support of your children in California.

A complaint has been received from California to the effect that you have only sent two payments of ten dollars each to your wife, and the last of these two payments was made this past January.

As you are aware, these payments of $10.00 each must be paid, and paid regularly. Otherwise if the California authorities desire they can bring you to that state for trial there.

It is requested that you resume these payments of $10.00 per month immediately, forwarding them directly to the mother of the children. And that you contact this office within the next ten days to determine what will be done about the payments which you have missed since last January.

Your cooperation in this matter will definitely be of benefit to you.

Very truly yours,

KC

Attention: Kenneth Cooper, Circuit Solicitor

Dear Mr. Cooper:

Mrs. Sara P. Parker has contacted us in reference to the support payments which her former husband, Joseph M. Mayham, was ordered to pay on or about December, 1957.

Your office notified us in November, 1957, that the Reciprocal action, which action had been filed in Los Angeles, had resulted in an order of $10.00 a month for the support of the minor child.

Mrs. Parker has advised us that she received only 2 payments of $10.00 and has received no payment since January, 1958.

Her local contacts in Alabama have notified her that her husband has been working.

We would appreciate it if you could determine whether or not Mr. Mayham might be compelled to comply with this order.

Very truly yours,

Joseph, I am sending to you a copy of the letter which I am sending to the California authorities relative to the case against you for non-support which you and I talked about a couple of days ago.

Yesterday, I talked with Judge Hall about the matter as I told you I would do, and he thought that it would be best that you pay to your wife at least ten dollars each month. You can send it to her directly, and I would suggest that you send it by money order and keep the receipts.

I am this date also writing a letter to the lawyer in California and telling her that you will begin the ten dollar monthly payment sometimes early next month.

The clerk of this court will mail you a bill for the costs that have been incurred in this case against you in this court, and when you get it, send the money to her for the costs as soon as you can.

Dear Mr Mayham:

According to the records furnished this office, on the 21st day of July, 1957, you were served a complaint for non-support by an officer from Sheriff Wilkins' office. There is nothing in the records of the Clerk's office to indicate that you have taken an action to handle this matter.

Some definite action on your part in this matter must be taken within the next ten days. Naturally the court in California are interested in action being taken in this matter. Will you therefore, please contact me before the end of this week if possible and make an appointment to see me about this matter. Usually I am in the office most every day, but sometimes I am out, and that is why I suggest that you either call me the day before coming, or write so that I will definitely be in the office.
