AMENDMENT TO ANSWER AND CROSS BILL

Now comes the Respondent and Cross Complaint, Bernice Shoots, and amends the Answer and Cross Bill heretofore filed in this cause by striking therefrom the following sentence: "The Respondent is now pregnant and has no property to maintain and support herself and it is necessary that she be maintained and supported by the Complainant whose failure to properly support her is without fault on her part.", and by adding thereto the following sentence: "That there was born to this marriage one child, Lavander Shoots, a son whose date of birth is March 1, 1953; that Respondent has no property to maintain and support herself and this child, and it is necessary that she be maintained and supported by the Complainant whose failure to properly support her is without fault on her part."

ANSWER AND CROSS BILL

Now comes the Respondent, Bernice Shoots, and for answer to the Bill of Complaint filed against her in this cause and for her Cross Bill thereto, says:

- l. She admits the allegations of paragraphs Numbered l and 2 of the Bill of Complaint.
- 2. Respondent denies each and all of the other allegations of the said Bill of Complaint which have not been specifically answered herein.

Respondent avers and alleges that said Complainant has been guilty of adultery with Essie Mae Ribdig, whose name is to your Respondent otherwise unknown.

Respondent further avers and charges that Complainant has made numerous threats of doing her physical harm and from his manner and conduct toward her, she is reasonably convinced that he will commit an actual violence upon her person, attended with danger to her life or health.

Respondent alleges that just prior to the filing of the Bill of Complaint in this cause that the Complainant forced the Respondent to move from the house where they were living as man and wife and that he has wholly failed to maintain and support her in any manner in keeping with the earnings of the Complainant. The Respondent is now pregnant and has no property to maintain and support herself and it is necessary that she be maintained and supported by the Complainant whose failure to properly support her is without fault on her part.

Respondent alleges that the Complainant is a brick mason by trade and that as such he earns approximately $400.00 per month.

Respondent allegew that it has been necessary for her to employ an attorney to represent her in this suit which was brought by the said Complainant and that she is without funds to pay her said attorney for services rendered and to be rendered by him in this cause.

PRAYER FOR PROCESS

Respondent prays that this answer be taken and treated in all respects as a Cross Bill and that the usual process of this Honorable Court issue to Complainant and Cross Respondent, Oliver Shoots, requiring him to appear and plead, answer or demur to this Cross Bill within the time prescribed by law and under the rules and practice of this Honorable Court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Respondent and Cross Complainant respectfully prays for the following separate and several relief:

- l. That a reference be held to ascertain and fix a reasonable sum to be paid to Respondent and Cross Complainant as alimony pendente lite and to ascertain and fix a reasonable amount to be paid to Respondent and Cross Complainant's Solicitor of record for services rendered and to be rendered by him in this cause.
- 2. That when the said reference is held and the Register Report thereof made, a decree be rendered fixing the amount of alimony pendente lite and an amount to be paid to Respondent and Cross Complainant's Solicitor of record for services rendered and to be rendered by him in this cause.
- 3. That on a final hearing of this cause, the Court will make and enter a proper decree divorcing the Respondent and Cross Complainant from the Complainant and Cross Respondent, and will final reasonable amount to be paid to the Respondent and Cross Complainant in a lump sum for alimony from the time of the commencement of this suit up to the date of this Decree and a reasonable monthly sum to be paid to her as alimony after the date of the said Decree.

4. Respondent and Cross Complainant further prays for such other, further and general relief as she may be equitably entitled to the premises considered.

Respectfully submitted,

Solicitor for Respondent and Cross-Complainant.

ANSWER TO CROSS-BILL AND AMMENDMENT TO BILL OF COMPLAINT

Now comes the Complainant and cross-respondent, Oliver Shoots, and for answer to the cross-bill of complainant heretofore filed in this cause by Beatrice Shoots, the Respondent, says as follows:

He denies the allegations of the cross-bill of complaint and each and every count and paragraph thereof.

Oliver Shoots, the Complainant, hereby ammends the Bill of Complaint heretofore filed in said cause by striking therefrom the prayer for relief and adding the following:

PRAYER FOR PROCESS AND RELIEF

That upon a final hearing of this cause your Complainant be granted a divorce from said Respondent on the grounds of her pregnancy at the time of marriage without his knowledge or agency. Complainant further prays that your Honor will exercise jurisdiction and authority granted to him in the Court of Equity and enter a decree showing that it is the findings and therefore the judgment of this Court that the Complainant, Oliver Shoots, is not the father of a child born to the said Beatrice Shoots in the month of March, 1953, which is the child born of the pregnancy referred to in said Bill of Complaint, and that the said Oliver Shoots, the Complainant in this cause, shall not be in any way responsible for said Child nor shall said child inherit from the said Oliver Shoots, nor shall said child in any way be considered as the legal child of the said Oliver Shoots, the Complainant in this cause.

Should your Complainant be mistaken in the relief prayed for that there be granted to him such other, different and general relief to which he may be entitled and as in duty bound he will ever pray.
