Executed 6-2-51
by arresting Bernice
Long and placing him
in jail

of Taylor Wilburn Sheriff
by H. F. Hall P.S.

At the time of the initial interview which was the same day he was placed on probation the subject's attitude was arrogant. He appeared to be a smart alecky, refusing to answer certain questions and more or less resented certain restrictions imposed by this officer. It was felt at the time that the subject was going to be a problem because of his attitude. It was only three days after he was placed on probation that he got into the present trouble. The subject was interviewed at the Baldwin County Jail on May 28th, at which time he stated that he just could not make it on probation, that is why he broke into the Duke's Pool Room.

It is this officer's recommendation that the subject's probation be revoked. The subject at the present time is incarcerated in the Baldwin County Jail.
