CIRCUIT COURT

Fall Session XXXX Term, 19 52

On Appeal from County Court.
Juvenile

THE STATE vs. AGNES SMITH

The State of Alabama, by its Solicitor, complains of Agnes Smith, whose name is to your informant otherwise unknown, that in said county and within twelve months before the commencement of this prosecution^s he did aid, encourage, or cause Opal Campbell, a child under sixteen years of age, to ~~become delinquent, or has by word, act or omission, threats, commands or persua-~~ ~~sion, induced or endeavored to induce, aided or encouraged said child to do or~~ ~~perform an act, or to follow a course of conduct which would cause or manifestly~~
~~tend to cause such child to become or remain delinquent, in that the said Agnes~~ ~~Smith did ride in the same automobile with said child late at night, which said~~ ~~child was then and there accompanied by Charles L. Merritt, a boy of the age of,~~
~~to-wit, twenty years, or did condone the acts of said Charles L. Merritt who kissed~~ the said child or who gave or attempted to give the said child intoxicating liquor, contrary to law and against the peace and dignity of the State of Alabama.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,

Juvenile Court of

Baldwin COUNTY.

Baldwin County.

We, Agnes Smith principal, and

Ips Undermyke

sureties

acknowledge ourselves indebted to Baldwin County, Alabama, in the sum of ~~Three Hundred~~ DOLLARS for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our administrators and executors. But the condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the Juvenile Court of said County did on the 22nd day of September, 1922, make and enter a final order of judgment, whereby the above bounden Agnes Smith was convicted for Contributing to Delinquency of a minor child and sentenced to three(3) months hard labor and whereas the above bounden Agnes Smith has prayed and obtained an appeal from said order, to the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama.

Now, if the said Agnes Smith shall appear in said Circuit Court when said case is called for trial, and from time to time thereafter until discharged by law, and shall answer such judgment as shall be rendered on said appeal, and shall pay all costs that may accrue on said appeal, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect. And as against this obligation we waive all right under the laws of Alabama to claim any personal property as exempt from levy and sale.

Witness our hands and seals this 22 day of Sept 1922
